JOHN WOOLFOLK HAS A CLOSE CALL

Took a Large Amount of Opium Poisoning Today.

Found Unconscious at Lagomarsino Hotel, But Is All Right Now.

HE HAD BEEN DESPONDENT.

John Woolfolk, son of Capt. Ed. Woolfolk, while despondent took an ounce of extract of opium a little after 6 o'clock at hotel Lagomarsino this morning, and for a time his life was despaired of. It was only after heroic work by Doctors Brooks Robertson, Rivers and Stewart, that his life was finally saved.

Mr. Woolfolk had been drinking for the past two days, and went to the hotel Wednesday night and registered under an assumed name. He was at the hotel all day Thursday, and Hugh Williams, the day clerk, said he had not been drinking so far as he could see all that day, so he thought he was recuperating.

He was seen in the lobby of the hotel at 10 o'clock last night and appeared to be all right. He ordered breakfast sent up to his room at 6 o'clock this morning, and it was when the waiter took it up that his condition was discovered. The waiter reported that he could not arouse him, and Clerk Williams then went to investigate. He saw that something was wrong and telephoned Mr. Woolfolk's home.

In the meanwhile, Mr. Oee Alexander, who had been requested by the young man's father to look for him as he had not been at home since Wednesday, came to the hotel, and went to the room and discovered his condition. He immediately telephoned for doctors, and notified Mr. Woolfolk. When the doctors arrived they saw his condition called for quick work, and in about an hour the patient regained consciousness. The young man said to friends after he became conscious that he had been despondent over drinking too much. He seemed to think that every hand was against him, which of course was a mistake, as he is one of the most popular young men in Paducah.

To others, it is said, he claimed to have taken the opium in some whiskey as a sleeping draught.

THE SUPERVISORS

County Board Will Hear Protests About Feb. 5.

The county tax book supervisors are diligently working on the tax books and will be ready in a short time to hear complaints from tax payers who have been raised.

A number of the board stated this morning that the date set for hearing protests against raises would begin about the 5th of next month.

"We have noted very carefully in our raises, and think we have done no one an injustice," a member stated today. "We have considered everything and hope to have succeeded in making the most judicious and satisfactory assessment in the history of the county."

The city supervisors are still plodding along with their work and it is impossible to tell how much more time will be required for the city board to complete its work. The members say double the time allowed by the charter would not be too much.

Acting Mayor Laughs and Says People Must Be Satisfied--No Complaints Yet

Acting Mayor Oscar Starks is a unique mayor. He has had no complaints since his administration. "I suppose the people are satisfied," he laughingly remarked today, "with my administration, for I have yet to have a single complaint. You know the mayor's chair is not a bed of roses, either. I like the 'job' very well I suppose,—any way it is all right as a temporary office."

As acting mayor, he has had very little to do so far, aside from signing some official papers.

"We hope to give passage to the first legislation for a park system for Paducah," said Mr. Starks today. "We realize that something along this line should be done and we intend to investigate the matter and

ELEVATED CAR

Knocked Into the Street—Four Are Killed.

New York, Jan. 19.—One car of the Kings County Elevated railway train was thrown from the elevated structure and at least four persons killed and several injured as a result of a rear-end collision. The car thrown into the street was a rear car on the forward train. The impact of the train knocked three trucks from the rails and the car tumbled from the structure into the street.

ZION CITY

Undergoing Many Changes—Dowle Said to Have Abducted.

Chicago, Jan. 19.—Zion City, founded by John Alexander Dowle, the first apostle, is, according to well-founded reports, rapidly undergoing a change from the outlined plans of Dowle. It is said Dowle has abducted and perhaps the most important change will be permitting outside factories to locate in Zion.

FATAL KICK OF MULE ENDS LIFE OF BOY

He Struck the Animal to Make It Move On Ahead.

Zettie Shepherd, Aged 10, Meets Sudden Death Near Mother.

HE WAS INSTANTLY KILLED

Zettie, the 10-year-old son of Jas. Shepherd, of the Melber section of the county, was kicked in the breast by a mule and killed about 6 o'clock last evening near his home. He was driving a team of mules on a four-mile stretch of road along the McCracken and Graves county line, when one of the four mules fell. It had been working hard, and it was evident was almost exhausted, and at the suggestion of others with the boy, he unhitched the mule after getting it up, and was preparing to tie it behind the wagon and lead it, when it began to balk.

The boy was standing directly behind the animal and struck it with his whip to make it move. It lifted its feet and kicked him with great force, the hoofs striking him over the heart and knocking him several feet. Mr. Wiley Hall and another man who were with the boy, rushed to his assistance, but death must have been almost instantaneous.

The remains were taken to the home of Mr. W. F. Hall, nearby, and afterwards to the home of his uncle and later to his home.

Shows the Results of Advertising and Good Merchandising.

The enterprising firm of Rudy, Phillips & Co. had one of the most successful sales that they have ever had today. They secured a quantity of fine silks at greatly reduced prices and advertised this sale extensively in the Sun. Their store was crowded with pleased buyers all day who obtained great bargains. This shows the result of judicious advertising and offering genuine bargains to Paducah's buyers.

Bank Robbers Get $1,000.

Elwood, Ill., Jan. 19.—J. C. Bentley's bank was blown up by burglars last night and a thousand dollars secured, supposedly by two men who escaped on a street car.

WIRE INSPECTOR KNOWS GOOD MAN

For Combined Place on Wires and Buildings.

Walter Wilkins Promoted by the I. C. at the Tennessee River Bridge.

SOME OTHER BUSINESS NOTES.

Mr. Wm. Gilsdorf, electrical inspector for the city, who was this week appointed inspector for the state board of underwriters, will go out of office this month, but will have his work up as far as he has gone and will have a form report to submit to the board with his recommendations relative to a successor.

Mr. Gilsdorf will the remainder of this month inspect work that is apparently all right. He stated that some of the work which had the appearance of being good and sound wiring had been passed by heretofore because he had more urgent inspections to make.

"I have a man who will make an excellent building and electrical inspector if one is wanted here," he stated. "This man is Mr. Wm. G. Smalstig, who put in the local Paducah Traction Co. plant."

"He has built street car lines been a world's fair inspector and is an expert. He is a good combination man as can be found and I will heartily recommend him as a man fully competent to hold the combined positions."

Mr. Gilsdorf says that if a building inspector is appointed and a building ordinance passed and enforced, it will be equivalent to cutting down taxes, because it will lower the insurance rates, practically being the same as cutting taxes. It will save thousands of dollars in insurance in the long run, and he thinks the idea a good one. In fact he will recommend it in cities where he will go to inspect after this month, when he starts on his state work for the state board of underwriters.

Walter Wilkins Promoted.

Mr. Walter Wilkins of this city, has been appointed to a very responsible position by the I. C., that of chief bridge tender at the new Tennessee river bridge at Gilbertsville, and has entered upon his new duties. The position has been held by Mr. P. H. Zannoner formerly of Louisville, who was installed in that place when the bridge was thrown into service. He resigned several days ago and Mr. Wilkins was given the position, being fully acquainted with the working of the interlocking and draw plant. He assisted the contractors in building the bridge, being employed as engineer of a gasoline boat used about the piers when they were being built.

No changes in subordinates has been announced but the time of watch, has been changed, each subordinate standing 12 hours watch.

Mayfield to Have Brewery.

An effort is being made to organize a stock company for the purpose of building a brewery at Mayfield.

Under the decision of the court of appeals rendered recently, beer cannot be sold, even in case lots, except by the manufacturers. Those who desire the articles sold in Mayfield are preparing to establish a brewery there for the purpose of manufacturing enough beer for the consumption of Mayfield and Graves county. It is said money has already been subscribed amounting to $5,000.

Fred Hisey to Return.

Fred Hisey will resign his position as chief revising clerk of the Big Four about the 1st of February and remove with his wife to Paducah. Mr. Hisey's family reside at Paducah and his father is in poor health which necessitates Mr. Hisey removing to Paducah. Calro Bulletin.

To Open a Shop Here.

J. Louis Starks, of Paducah, was in town Monday evening. "Louie" and another gentleman have formed a partnership in the job printing business at Paducah and they are now unpacking type and machinery preparatory to commencing business the latter part of the present month.—Metropolis Herald.

Needs More Room.

It is rumored that the Scudder-

Gale-Wearon Grocery company has under consideration the construction of a large warehouse for the accommodation of their rapidly increasing business at Cairo. Plans are said to have been drawn up also that the work of erecting the building will be commenced as soon as a location has been decided upon, according to the Cairo papers. Mr. Wearon formerly lived in Paducah.

Becomes Night Operator.

Balley Arter, who for some time past has been working extra for the Illinois Central, has accepted a position with that company as night operator at Ballard Junction.

CAPT. FRANK HARLAN, 34 YEARS ON FORCE, PRESENTED WITH A BADGE.

Captain Frank Harlan, of the police force, is wearing a new gold badge which was presented to him yesterday by the police as a token of their respect and love for the veteran officer.

Captain Harlan is the oldest man on the Paducah police force, and yet he is as active as any patrolman half his age.

He has now been patrolling about 34 years, and knows the business front start to finish.

The patrolman had the star made and engraved, and presented to him. It reads, "Captain Paducah Police," and is a very beautiful badge.

IN A TANGLE

QUESTIONS STILL TO BE SETTLED IN THE CHARLES WATTS ESTATE.

Administrator Claims That Some of the Expense Was Unnecessary.

Denver, Col., Jan. 19.—When Charles Watts died suddenly here, December 6, he left behind him an estate that has since been tangled in legal complications. Watts was a young attorney of Smithland, Ky., and a casual visitor in Denver when he died. Coroner Rollins took charge of the remains, and two days later died a petition for the appointment of C. J. Morley as administrator, so that he might collect his funeral charge of over $200. The law provides that no creditor of an estate can come in before the expiration of twenty days and ask the appointment of an administrator. It has also been held that an undertaker with an account for funeral expenses is not a creditor within the meaning of the law. Watts had with him here government bonds worth $2,000, and other valuables, all of which were taken in charge by Mr. Morley, as administrator. These items were all accounted for in Mr. Morley's final report asking to be discharged.

Attorneys for Charles Adams, the Kentucky administrator, claims that expenses of $105.60 claimed by Morley were needless and illegal, to have been needlessly made, because the appointment of an administrator here was unequalled for.

VIOLA ALLEN

SAID TO HAVE BEEN SECRETLY MARRIED IN LOUISVILLE.

Peter Duryea, Millionaire Turfman, Is the Fortunate Man.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 19.—It became known here today that Peter Duryea, the millionaire turfman, who is being sued for $50,000 for breach of promise by Sarah Madden, an actress, was secretly married in Louisville August 16 last to Viola Allen, the famous actress, by Rev. W. Frank Hardy, of St. Andrew's Episcopal church.

FREIGHT RATES ATTRACT ATTENTION

Evansville Rates to Alabama Fields are Reduced.

It Is Not Known How It Will Affect Paducah Territory and Our Freight Rates.

MAYFIELD GETS ON HER EAR.

Evansville shippers are to have a reduction of rates to the Montgomery, Ala., territory.

The entire status of trade between Evansville and points within a radius of Alabama will be changed by the new order. It was issued by the Southeastern Mississippi Valley Freight Association after a meeting held in Louisville.

The decrease will be on both class and commodity shipments from one-fourth of a cent to five cents to Montgomery, Selma, and all points governed by the Montgomery rates. The changes will become effective on February 1. The principal freight charges to be changed are those from Ohio river crossing, such as Evansville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Cairo, Owensboro and Paducah.

Conditions in the Alabama freight districts governed by Montgomery freight rates have been a source of contention among shippers all over the country for some years. The case has been presented to the S. E. M. V. Association on different occasions and has been regularly passed until an adjustment could be decided upon. The definite complaint was that the rates were extortionate compared with rates from Potomac and Mississippi river crossings, and this contention was granted by the association.—Evansville Journal-News.

In regard to the above, a local official said today that he had heard nothing of any changes in rates here, and did not think that Paducah would be affected by the above.

Mayfield's Railroad Rates.

At last a combined effort is being made that will probably have some effect in reducing the freight rates at Mayfield, says the Mayfield Messenger. Along this line C. C. McChord and Mac D. Ferguson, of the state railroad commission met with a number of merchants and shippers of Mayfield at the court house Thursday to make a thorough investigation of the alleged exorbitant rates that our merchants have been paying for many years.

Representing the Illinois Central Railroad company present were Attorney Dulen, of Louisville, C. C. Cameron, traffic manager of the Memphis division and Supt. Gaven, of the Fulton district. A number of citizens have been before the gentlemen today to answer the questions propounded regarding the freight rates that they have been charged. The rates is far above what is paid at Paducah and the investigation will no doubt prove beyond any doubt that we are entitled to great deduction.

We take for instance loaded shells the rate on which is 23 cents per hundred from Louisville to Paducah while from Paducah to Mayfield the rate of 37 cents is charged. The distance is nine times as great and yet a great difference in the rate.

Wire costs 10 cents freight from Louisville to Paducah and from Paducah to Mayfield 24 cents is charged.

Another thing in our favor is the fact that Covington Bros., wholesale grocers, have every car load of sugar purchased by them to Paducah instead of shipped from New Orleans having it stopped off here. From Paducah it is then hauled by wagon at a rate cheaper than by rail.

John Pepper Dies of Pneumonia.

John Pepper, age 20, of 1245 Tremble street, died of pneumonia this morning at 9 o'clock at his home after a brief illness. He leaves parents and several sisters and brothers. He worked at the railroad shops. The body will be buried tomorrow morning at Oak Grove cemetery.

USED POCKET KNIFE.

W. H. Pain, a Prominent Farmer, Suicided Near Irvington.

Irvington, Jan. 19.—W. H. Pain, one of the best known farmers of this county, committed suicide some time during the night, by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a small knife.

He was sleeping in the same bed with his fourteen-year-old son, Herbert, at his home at Newleville and the first known of the suicide was when the boy awoke about 6 o'clock this morning and found his father on the floor near the bed, his nightclothes saturated with blood. He had evidently been dead several hours.

Marshall Field's Funeral.

Chicago, Jan. 19.—With business temporarily suspended as a mark of respect, the funeral of Marshall Field occurred today after two ceremonies, one at the residence for the family and the other at the First Presbyterian church for the family and friends. The burial took place at Graceland cemetery.

BIG INSURANCE CASE IS ON TRIAL

Rebating Suits Called in Circuit Court Today.

About $50,000 Involved—Prominent Insurance Men Are Attending.

THE CASE MAY LAST SOME TIME

One of the most important cases on the civil circuit court docket is being tried today and there are several prominent men here participating in the trial.

The case is that of the commonwealth against the Interstate Life Assurance Co., of Indianapolis, for $500 for alleged rebating. This is the second time the case has been tried, last term the trial resulting in a hung jury.

Among the prominent men here attending the trial are President Charles A. Sadlow, general manager of the insurance society, and the general manager, Mr. John T. Martindale, of Indianapolis, Ind. Two attorneys are here to represent the company. They are Judge Ed Traub and Charles Martindale, the former of Louisville and latter of Indianapolis.

Deputy Insurance Commissioner Fuqua, of Frankfort, is also here.

There are several of the cases in this court, each for the penalty of $500 for every case of rebating, and in the entire state there are enough similar cases against the same company to make a total amount of $50,000.

The company's claim is that it did not authorize rebating, its orders were against it and it did not know of the rebating. The case will not be finished today.

Circuit Judge William M. Reed is determined to have people on time in his court. Mrs. Marie McMannon, the official court reporter, was late today at noon and Judge Reed ordered a fine of $5 and costs assessed against her for failing to appear at 1:30 when court convened. Judge Reed is punctual himself and expects witnesses and attorneys to also be.

Suit On a Contract.

Taylor and Lucas expect to file this afternoon a suit in the circuit court of H. L. Styers against W. A. and Ed. McClure for $5,600. Styers and the McClures had a contract for the McClures to clear up some timber lands belonging to Styers, and were to pay him 40 per cent of the net profits, and it is for an alleged balance that the suit is filed.

Pleaded Guilty in Justice Emery's Court.

Henry Sprinks, colored, who used oaths and boisterous language in public, pleaded guilty in Justice Emery's court this morning and was fined $1 and costs.

Iowa Legislature Intercedes.

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 19.—The Iowa senate today petitioned Gov. Stokes, of New Jersey, for a pardon for Mrs. Tolla, condemned to hang for murder.

John Eddy Fane, colored, was arrested in a box car this morning by Special Officer Dick Tolbert, of the local I. C. and will be tried tomorrow morning.

WILL VAN DALSEN EXPIATES HIS CRIME

Louisville Murderer Hanged in the Jail Yard This Morning.

Was Game to the Last and Smiled as Preparations Were Being Made.

A LUNCHING IN MISSISSIPPI.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 19.—Wm. Van Dalsen was hanged in the jail yard this morning at 7:24 for the murder of Mrs. Fannie Porter. He strangled to death and was pronounced dead in 15 minutes.

He mounted the gallows indifferently, and smiled during the preparations for the execution. Mrs. Jas. Sadler, a sister of the victim, the woman's first husband and other relatives witnessed the execution.

Mrs. Sadler viewed the twitching body with evident pleasure, and exclaimed: "Shiver; you're dying like a chicken!"

Van Dalsen kept up his bravado to the last.

The crime for which he was hung was an unusually atrocious one.

Fannie Porter had been his mistress, and was trying to get clear of him. He had threatened to kill her if she did not return within a week, but she seemed to think her power over him was great enough to prevent his doing her bodily harm. She and Van Dalsen engaged a room over a saloon on the day of the murder, Sept. 12, 1901, and had a drink or two.

According to one story afterwards told by Van Dalsen, the woman asked him to kill her, and he did so by drawing a razor across her throat, cutting her head almost off. Another story he told was that he decided to kill her, and placing his arm over her neck and drawing her head to him, he severed her windpipe and placed the body on the bed.

Second Lynching of Year.

Minola, Miss., Jan. 19.—The first lynching of the year in Mississippi, and the second in the United States, occurred Wednesday night in Simpson county. A young negro accused of attacking a white school girl was the victim.

NASHVILLE TRIP

Of County Judge R. T. Lightfoot Is Over.

County Judge R. T. Lightfoot has returned from Nashville, Tenn., where he had gone on business connected with a new court house and jail.

Judge Lightfoot learned several weeks ago that Nashville's court house and jail were built by a firm in return for a site in the business portion of the city. The company erected in addition a big office building and made its money back on rentals, etc. Judge Lightfoot thought this a good proposition to invite for McCracken county, and went down to investigate.

He refused this morning to make any statement about the results of his visit. He stated that it was county business which should go before fiscal court before being divulged to others not connected in an official way. He will be prepared to bring the matter up as soon as fiscal court meets again in April, but a special meeting may be called in the meantime.

Judge Lightfoot refused to state whether or not his visit was successful. He would have nothing to say one way or the other.

WHAT DO YOU CARE? YOU'VE GOT YOUR HEALTH.

Great Natures Do Not Despair at Disappointment—They Look For Something Else to Do.

The broad-gauged man of today does not get blue just because things don't always come his way unless there is something the matter with him. If he "falls down" on one proposition he immediately starts to look up another. He always looks forward and keeps on hustling. A man with his health and faculties has plenty of opportunities and the man who gives up or even feels like it has either a small nature or some physical weakness.

Dyspepsia certainly puts the best of men out of condition for work of any kind. You cannot blame the dyspeptic for getting blue. The very nature of his disease is most depressing and calculated to deprive him of ambition, energy and hope. There is hope for him, however, certain and sure.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are recognized throughout the length and breadth of the land as the one cure that's safe and sure. Their unbounded popularity—resulting from the thousands and thousands of cures they have effected, prove beyond the shadow of a doubt their greatness as a cure. Wherein lies their greatness? In the very fact that they are Nature's own simple remedy. They do the exact work in exactly the same way that the digestive fluids of the stomach do because they are composed of exactly the same elements and possess the same properties. They relieve the weak and worn out stomach of its burden of digestion and permit it without let or hindrance to rest and grow sound and well. The stomach will get well quick enough in its own natural way, if it is left alone. That is what Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do. They not only let it alone themselves but make the food taken into the stomach do the same.

You can satisfy yourself of the truth of this statement by putting the food you would eat into a glass jar with sufficient water and one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. The process of digestion will be taken up and carried out just as the gastric juice and other digestive fluids would do it. Their action is natural and they cause no disturbance in the digestive organs. In fact you forget you have a stomach when they begin to do their work, so mild and natural is the operation. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 50c a box.

present term ends this month. Little work in this department has been done this season but the members of the club expect to make up for lost time. They have several sketches and will rehearse them after this month with view of putting one on each month, and maybe two a month if they prove as successful as former attempts in the entertainment line. Some members of the High School propose to write sketches and light plays to be acted by the club. This will prove an additional feature of the entertainment.

The Black Patti Troubadours gave about their usual show last night to a large audience at the Kentucky theater. Some parts were good and some bad, and some of the performers might have done much better had they not been so impressed with their own imaginary importance. The show as a whole seems to have been good enough for its class, but "Black Patti" was not in good voice, and hardly got a hand when she sang.

"The King of Tramps," which is said to be one of the best and one of the cleanest tramp plays on the stage will be at The Kentucky theater tomorrow afternoon and night, and will probably draw well. The tramp in this play is said to be entirely different from the usual stage tramp, and he has good support.

CAIRO FANS ARE NOT ENTHUSIASTIC

Paducah Took All the Life Out of Them Last Season.

Letters Calling the St. Louis Meeting For January 28 Are Issued.

OTHER LATE DIAMOND DOPE.

Secretary W. P. Greaney, of the Kitty league, has prepared an official call for the St. Louis meeting of the league.

He has written letters which will be sent to each city proposed for membership. The meeting is to be held on the 28th at the Hotel Jefferson, St. Louis.

A president, secretary and treasurer will be elected and the membership of the league determined. Each representative is instructed to bring $430 which will be the total amount to deposit to play out the season.

The letters will be sent out tomorrow and will reach the towns not later than Monday in plenty of time for the meeting.

Mr. M. J. Farnbaker, who wields the sporting pen on the Cairo Bulletin, is getting anxious about that Cairo baseball association meeting and from day to day has some squib in his paper urging the meeting.

The Cairo sporting element had a very cold plunge last season and it took all the life out of it for a while, and the inclination, if the anxiety of the Cairo sporting writer can be taken as an indication of the sports in our sister city, is to keep out until it is clearly seen how they stand.

In Paducah it is different, and the management will hold a meeting as soon as the St. Louis meeting has been held. Manager Lloyd has plenty of players signed. It requires but one meeting to get matters in shape.

Eddie Kolb, of the Hoosiers, says he is still signing players and will offer Vincennes sports a better team than last year. He has published no names yet.

There is a great deal of talk in baseball circles relative to who will be retained in the bigger leagues out of the number of recruits from the Kitty. Lond, Harbour, Cooper and more than a dozen others have been drafted, sold and given trials in faster company. This was merely a small test and it is safe to predict that not half of them will be retained. Land, of Paducah; Harbour, of Vincennes, and several others who have been loaned, sold and tried out, will probably be right back in the Kitty.

The Vincennes Capital says: Louie Barbour may be a member of the Vincennes team next season, all reports to the contrary probably being untrue. The Louisville club has not as yet drafted Barbour, and there is no indication that it will. Barbour is very anxious to return to Vincennes next season, and in a letter to the Capital says he hopes to spend the summer in this city. He predicts success for the newly framed Kitty and believes it will be a money maker, or at least one that will pay expenses.

FATAL MISHAP

COLORADO YOUTH HAS LEG CUT OFF NEAR DAWSON, KY.

Clyde Ray Brought to the City Last Night and Expired at the Railroad Hospital.

Clyde Ray, colored, aged about 18 years, and a resident of Henderson, Ky., fell beneath an Illinois Central work train near Dawson yesterday and had an arm and leg crushed off. He was given treatment at Dawson, and brought to the city on the 6 p. m. train and conveyed to the I. C. hospital.

His injuries were so bad, however, that nothing could be done for him and he expired at 10 o'clock. The remains were taken to the Nance-Pool undertaking establishment to await instructions from the boy's family.

Ray was working in an extra section gang under Foreman Kelley. The train was pulled by engine No. 1726 in charge of Engineer Jack Rucker. The boy started to jump on the train about 2:35 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Ruth station, fifty-five miles north of Paducah, between Cedar Bluff and Dawson, and fell under the cars. His left arm and left leg were amputated. Witnesses say Ray tried to grasp the hand-grip of the car but lost his hold with his feet and fell. He was single but leaves parents, it is understood, residing near Henderson.

The Diamond Cure.

The latest news from Paris is, that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. If you fear consumption or pneumonia, it will, however, be best for you to take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. McGee, of Vanleer, Tenn. "I had a cough, for fourteen years. Nothing helped me, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which gave instant relief, and effected a permanent cure." Unequalled quick cure, for throat and Lung Troubles. At W. B. McPherson's Drug Store; price 50c and $1. guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

PAIRISH JONES AGAIN.

Arrested Last Night and Police Do Not Know What to Do With Him.

Parish Jones, white, is again in trouble and the police are at loss to know what disposition to make of him.

Jones has "fits" and bad ones at that. He has been a subject to these "spells" for several years, and has often been picked up off the streets in an unconscious condition and it was only last week that he was taken from near the I. C. depot to Riverside hospital after a serious series of "spells," as he calls them.

Last night he was found in a half delirious condition suffering from the delirium tremens. He declared he would never touch liquor again.

but he has done this before. This morning he was better but not entirely recovered, and was granted a continuance in police court on a vagrancy charge.

Jones has requested several times to be sent to the asylum. The police do not believe him insane and therefore he would not be admitted to the asylum.

Death of an Old Settler.

"Uncle" Wash Haley, who lived near Locust Grove, died last Friday evening of pneumonia. He was about eighty years of age and was a highly respected citizen and had long been a pillar of the Primitive Baptist church. He reared a splendid family, five boys and one daughter, who with his aged companion survive. The remains were interred at Old Salem.—Smithland Democrat.

Second Week of Our Great January Sale

This is the second week of our great price-reducing campaign and those who have called know that we mean business---that we are determined to clear our store of winter wearables regardless of first cost or their value in the market at this time. If you wish to have the free and unrestricted choice of the finest stock of clothing in Paducah you should come in at once, while the lines are comparatively unbroken. We want this sale to continue with the vigor which our decisive price reductions warrant. In this sale we include all of our men's, boys' and children's suits and overcoats except blues and blacks. If you have put off buying your suit or overcoat until now do not do so any longer, as our high price clothing will go in this sale. Here are some of the prices; read them and then come in and look over the goods, and remember 75 cents buys a dollar's worth during this sale.

SCHOOL FIGHT

WILL BE INVESTIGATED IN POLICE COURT TOMORROW.

Board Does Not Want Schools Demoralized in Such a Way and Will Prosecute.

The trial of Ed. Morgan, the blacksmith, who engaged in a fistfight at the Lee building with Principal J. S. Ragsdale, yesterday, will come up in police court tomorrow.

The first warrant charged a breach of the peace, but the school authorities had another issued today charging disturbing a public assemblage, a more serious offense.

Mr. Morgan has made no statement about the case except that he went there to settle a difficulty with the tutor and struck him with his fist.

Prof. Ragsdale has made no statement except to his superiors and the substance of his story is as follows:

Several weeks ago he had trouble with Charles Morgan, son of Mr. Ed. Morgan, but the matter was amicably settled. Yesterday the Morgan boy fought with another pupil and the principal whipped them. While he was whipping the second, the Morgan boy jumped out of the window, went home, and procured his father.

The father appeared at the door and asked Prof. Ragsdale what the trouble was between the two. Prof. Ragsdale anticipated trouble from the attitude taken by the blacksmith and backed into his room. Morgan followed and immediately the school was thrown into confusion. Morgan is alleged to have drawn a chair and Ragsdale seized one, too. Morgan attempted to strike but Ragsdale warded it off and then dropping chairs the two took to fighting with their hands.

Principal Ragsdale claims that he got hold of Morgan's throat and thwarted his efforts to draw a weapon of some kind from his pocket. At this juncture the son ran in and began to strike the principal with a broom stick. Ragsdale then turned on the boy and the trouble ended.

Dr. C. G. Warner, who resides across the street, heard the noise and seeing the school children running out in terror, went into the building. The two had stopped hostilities but after Warner entered the room, Morgan struck Ragsdale once more.

Mr. Morgan says that he has no statement to make further than that he struck Ragsdale with his fist and surrendered to the police.

A school official stated in substance this morning regarding the matter:

"While I have no personal feeling in this matter I desire to say that we will push the case as hard as possible. Mr. Morgan in the heat of his anger completely demoralized the school and the excitement may not wear off for several days, if that soon. The matter could have been adjusted out of the school, and should have been. This is the first serious trouble we have had in two years and it hurts the schools and those running them. I am sorry it has happened but we will try to make an example of this man and discourage such conduct in the future."

Mr. Morgan did not intend to interfere with the workings of the school and seems to regret the excitement and notoriety.

KENTUCKY PRESS

Is Preparing For the Midwinter Meeting January 23.

The program for the midwinter meeting of the Kentucky Press Association has been issued. It provides for two interesting sessions, both of which will be held in the Frankfort opera house. The Frankfort Street Railway company has invited the delegates to participate in a trolley ride, the object of which will be a visit to the site of the new capitol building. The date of the meeting is January 23.

The following is the program: Afternoon phases, papers on practical phase of newspaper work; "Need of Legislation on Advertising," Lew B. Brown, Harrodsburg Democrat;

"Wisdom of Changing to Semi-Weekly," Henry Somers, Elizabeth-town News; "Foreign Printed Supplements," John D. Babbage, Cloverport News; "A Moving Pen Gathers Much Ink," W. P. Walton, Frankfort Journal; "Newspaper Development in the Mountains," James H. Eads, Harlan Enterprise; "Value of District Associations," A. D. Miller, Richmond Climax.

Evening session, addresses by William Lightfoot Vischer, Chicago, Ill.; A. Y. Ford, Louisville, Ky.

Fifty-three acceptances have been received to date.

ALL NOW SOLD

Last of the Equity Tobacco Bought at Owensboro.

Owensboro, Ky., Jan. 19.—All of the dark tobacco held by the American Society of Equity in Owensboro has been sold, the deal having been closed for 670 hogsheds. The price obtained was the same as that on the 1,192 hogsheds sold Monday—$9.25 for all grades, representing $9.75 for grades A, B and C, $8.75 for grade D, and $7.75 for grades E and O.

The sale was made through I. P. Barnard, of the Louisville Warehouse company. The name of the purchaser was not made public.

The total sales this week foot up 1,772 hogsheds, which, on the basis of 1,300 pounds to the hoghead, will make 2,403,600 pounds, and at the average price it has brought, $222,333.

And It Spoke Mighty Nice About Hyde and the Equitable.

New York, Jan. 19.—Justice Joseph M. Denel of the court of special sessions, on the witness stand in the action for criminal libel which he brought against Norman Hapgood, editor of Collier's Weekly, admitted that the Equitable life assurance society had taken a mortgage for $165,000 on unimproved property which Town Topics owned. Counsel for Hapgood tried to show that this mortgage was taken because of the friendship between Col. Mann, editor of Town Topics, and James Hazen Hyde. He also wanted to show that the Equitable folks were treated to the best in the publication.

DAVID B. HILL

Wants Vindication For His Connection With the Equitable.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 19.—David B. Hill appeared before the state bar association and made a request that the retainer received by him from the Equitable life assurance society be investigated. He placed before the association all of the correspondence between himself and the company. A resolution was adopted providing for an investigation. Mr. Hill said that in general his services consisted of frequent consultations with Equitable officers, of furnishing opinions in litigations actually pending and threatened and opinions as to the constitutionality and interpretations of statutes enacted and proposed. He said that he gave advice on all sorts of legal questions and that his position was by no means a sinecure.

Daily Thought.

Wishing, of all employments, is the worst.—Edward Young.

PADUCAH'S SCHOOL SYSTEM.

The Paducah public schools should be a source of pride to every citizen, not only because of their efficiency, but also because of the economy shown in their management. The board last year spent about $55,000 and constructed a new school and added some new teachers. $35,000 it received from the city and twenty thousand from the state. There are about 6,000 school children shown in the school census.

Lexington, also a second-class city, is larger than Paducah and has about 8,000 school children. It thus has about one-fourth more school children than Paducah, but this year wants $119,638 to run its schools. It expects to get about $30,000 from the state, about $6,000 from back taxes and tuition, and the remaining $80,000 and over must be raised by the city.

Think of a city with only one-fourth more school children than Paducah, having to have over twice as much money, and in a city of various other schools, institutes and colleges, too, which not only have a tendency to reduce the school attendance, but also to lower the standard of excellence in the public schools and thus make their maintenance cheaper.

The $119,638 wanted by Lexington, as against about $60,000 wanted by Paducah, will still fall so far short of what she needs that the school board contemplates a reduction of the school term from ten to six, seven or eight months in order to get along with the money the city can raise with a 35 cent levy.

Lexington has a $19,000,000 assessment on which to levy taxes, and still is beginning to experience the hardship of a 35 cent maximum levy, which the Paducah schools have to contend with on a $10,000,000 valuation. Lexington needed fully $12,000 more last year than was raised, and will need more money this year than a 35 cent levy will raise. The only alternative seems to be to curtail the school term, which will no doubt be a great hardship on both teachers and pupils.

The other two second-class cities, Covington and Newport, probably do not suffer to any great extent, as they are practically a part of Cincinnati, and many children attend school in Cincinnati, thus reducing the cost of maintaining the schools on the Kentucky side.

The plight of Paducah and Lexington should demonstrate to the legislature the necessity of increasing the maximum school levy for cities of the second class.

The plight of Lexington and the cost of her schools, however, should be a lesson to Paducah how to run her schools.

Louisville

board of education. Mr. A. H. Bracey, will resign to become chief deputy county assessor. The Herald says: "After consultation with his attorney, A. H. Bracey, president of the school board, decided that his position would be incompatible with holding that of chief deputy to County Assessor John M. Adams, and will consequently tender his resignation at the next meeting of the board." This case is similar to that of Trustee W. T. Byrd, of the Paducah board of education. He is now serving as a deputy county clerk, which is exactly the same as a deputy county assessor. There is no objection to Mr. Byrd, but under the law he vacated his position on the school board when he qualified as a county officer, as the two places are incompatible.

Z. T. Long, who was injured by a fall on the streets of Paducah, one day last week, will institute suit for damages against the city of Paducah. He says it was the bad condition of the street that caused him to fall.—Mayfield Monitor. We are inclined to think, however, that the real cause of the accident is more likely to have been the Mayfield man's unfamiliarity with good streets, as where he fell is paved with brick.

The suggestion of Supt. Muscoe Burnett, of the water company, that the city put in special hydrants for the street sprinklers, is a good one, and will probably be carried out. The water company does not intend to charge the city anything for the water, and wants the special hydrants only to protect the city and itself in case of fire, when the fire hydrants used by the street department employees might be found frozen as a result of improper shutting off.

This sale of silk will long be remembered by the buyers of Paducah—some with pleasure, because they bought some of the great bargains—others with regret, because they missed the sale. Were you not able to get down today come tomorrow for a lot of the good ones are left. RUDY, PHILLIPS & CO.

Death in Livingston.

Last Thursday night, at his home in the old Aydebolt house, on Conant Hill, Mr. Gid Mitchell passed away, after a long siege of consumption. Mr. Mitchell was an energetic, highly respected man in this community, and was for several years, the trusted agent of the Ayer & Lord Tie Co. He was buried in the Scotts Chapel neighborhood.—Smithland Banner.

We still have some very attractive values left from our Silk Sale and you should come down and look them over. RUDY, PHILLIPS & CO.

ENGLERT AND BRYANT

QUARTER OF A CENTURY

"Billy" Reed Has Been Driving a Grocery Wagon in Paducah.

"Billy" Reed, clerk at Tate's grocery, is preparing to celebrate on January 23 the twenty-fifth anniversary of his service as a "grocery boy" in Paducah. "Billy" began driving a grocery wagon a quarter of a century ago next Tuesday, and has kept everlastingly at it and still finds it pleasant. "Billy" believes in doing well whatever you do, and he has the satisfaction of knowing that he is about the best in Paducah in his line.

When he first started in the business there were comparatively few grocery wagons in Paducah, and the town was not large. Now there are scores of wagons and the town has spread over a great deal of territory. Billy's acquaintance has kept pace with the growth of the town, too, and there are few people who do not know him. A couple of years ago he made the race for city jailer and came within a few votes of winning the Democratic nomination. People didn't know whether Billy would make a good city jailer or not, but they knew he was a good fellow, and that was enough. He is still as young as he looks, and he looks just as he did when he started in twenty-five years ago. Many of the prominent statesmen, merchants and other Paducahans who now pass him with a smile and a nod used to hang on the back of his wagon in their earlier days—but they have probably forgotten about it. Billy hasn't, though, and often when he sees them pass along he calls the attention of his frisky and faithful old horse, "Gunpowder," to them, chuckles softly and draws up at the next house.

SEeks that should bring twice the money—marvelous values; what is left—and beauties at that—offered again for Saturday, so do not miss this opportunity.

OUT OF DANGER.

Will Taylor Has Recovered From the Laudanum.

Will Taylor, eldest son of Former Councilman Young Taylor, has recovered from the effects of a dose of laudanum taken with supposed suicidal intent yesterday.

Taylor walked into the Nelson & Sears saloon, at Third and Norton streets, and informed the bartender he had taken over an ounce of the drug. He was taken to a room over the building and Dr. Horace Hivers summoned. He was given drugs to counteract the laudanum and this morning was able to leave his bed. He has entirely recovered. His father stated this morning that he does not believe the young man took anything, believing him to be drunk and only making a "bluff."

All the good ones are not gone, so come down tomorrow and buy a silk dress for half the ordinary price.

Seduction Case.

John Agnew, and J. C. Brennan, has been warranted in Justice Emery's court on a charge of seduction preferred by Hattie Park, daughter of an I. C. employee residing on Huntington Row, and the trial of the case is set for tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. James A. Park is the girl's father, and she is alleged to have a two-months-old child of which Agnew is said to be father. The girl claims she and Agnew have been sweethearts for four years, and had been engaged since 1923.

The trial of the case is set for Monday in Justice Emery's court.

RIVER NEWS

The river fell 0.2 of a foot last night, the gauge registering 20.2 feet this morning.

The Dick Fowler had a very good trip for Cairo and way-points this morning.

The Kentucky arrived out of the Tennessee river today with a good trip and leaves on the return trip Saturday.

The Peters Lee is due tonight en route to Cincinnati.

The Hees Lee is due from Cincinnati Saturday morning.

The Chattanooga left Chattanooga Wednesday and is due Saturday. The Joe Fowler was the Evansville packet today.

The Margaret came in yesterday from Cumberland river with a tow of 37,000 lbs for the Ayer and Lord Co., and leaves for Tennessee river today.

The Inverness leaves for the Cumberland river today. It was thought a week ago that the coalboat season was at an end for an indefinite time, but the recent rains have caused a flood of water to rush into the river and it is likely that several tows of coal will again be started south from Pittsburgh.

Captain Norman Laullin, aged seventy, a well-known Cincinnati, St. Louis and New Orleans pilot, died in Memphis, Tenn.

The Peters Lee was detained at Memphis by labor troubles and did not clear for Cincinnati until Wednesday afternoon.

Capt. William McClellan, formerly of St. Louis, but now of Shreveport, La., where he is connected with the Louisiana railway and navigation company, has returned home from Jeffersonville, Ind., where he let the contracts for the construction of two iron barges and two towboats, one to be built of steel and the other of wood. The barges are for railway transfer purposes to operate between Angola and Water Valley, La., filling a gap of eight and three-quarters miles in the railway lines, now building. The barges will be each 215 feet long, 37 feet beam and 7 1/2 feet depth of hold, one being intended for carrying passenger trains and the other for freight cars. The towboats will be each 145 feet long, 21 feet beam and 5-foot hold, having a draft of about 3 feet. One of the boats will be named the William Edenhorn, but the other has not yet been named.

Captain John E. Massengale, general manager of the St. Louis and Tennessee river packet company, and Theodore F. Hall, master of the steamer City of Savannah, have gone to Danville, Tenn., the former to hunt quail and the latter to join the steamer, which is wintering at that point.—Globe-Democrat.

Capt. W. H. Leyhe, master of the steamer Grey Eagle, his winter quarters here, and his wife are spending a part of the winter at Hot Springs, Ark.

Capt. Harry N. Crane, master of the steamer City of Salt Lake, and his wife, have gone to Atlanta, Ga., from which point they will go to the mountains to spend a few weeks for the benefit of the captain's health.

The Helen White has raised the coal-sunk by the Lizzie Day at Cincinnati some weeks ago. The Day is still beached at Ludlow, Ky.

When the Ohio river is locked and dammed and there is a 9-foot stage in it all the year round from Pittsburgh to Cairo there will be a number of the finest and fastest boats ever seen running on the Ohio. Railroads will be unable to compete with them carrying freight and people, for they will be able to make as good time and give cheaper rates of transportation as railroads can do. When a 9-foot stage becomes a certainty the Ohio river business will prosper as in rainy days. Come on with your 9-foot stage.—Courier-Journal.

The longest and fastest boat that ever was in the Cumberland river was the big low pressure Jacob Strader. She went to Nashville during the war in command of the late Capt. Mose Anders. Her cabin was filled with Adams Express packages for the soldiers and her deck was filled with government freight. She went from Nashville to the mouth of Cumberland river on her return trip in less than ten hours. The late Barney Seales was one of her pilots on that run.—Courier-Journal.

The John Mackey has left Cincinnati with barge Albert Slack for Hickman with 14,000 bushels of rice.

It is reported in Pittsburgh that Mrs. William Heddlon has sold her wharfbarge at Sisterville to Capt. E. Talbot, of New Martinsville, for $5,000. Mrs. Heddlon after managing the boat for several years will retire from the river business.

Ask your grocer for Mrs. Austin's Pancake flour. Fresh, delicious.

IN THE COURTS

Circuit Court.

A motion has been made in the case of the National Life Insurance company against H. A. Rose's administrator, to have the petition of the Western National bank dismissed.

The bank holds a policy in this company for $10,000 claimed to be pledged to the bank as security for a debt. The bank is attempting to hold the policy and collect it while the administrator is trying to turn all policies into money to the estate of the deceased.

In the case of E. K. Slater against the Mergenthaler-Horton Basket Co., additional reasons for a new trial were filed.

County Court.

J. T. Leeper, age 26, of Massac county, Ill., and Hattie May Johnson, age 19, of this county, were licensed to marry this morning.

John W. Egister, colored, this morning qualified as a notary public.

The liquor license of L. C. Perry at Seventh and Jackson streets was today transferred to 12th and Jones streets.

H. J. Holdry was today appointed a deputy clerk in the Ragland district.

Bankruptcy Court.

Attorneys are still working up data on the M. Schwab bankrupt case, and will be ready in a few days to argue the motion to force Mrs. T. Schwab, wife of M. Schwab, into bankruptcy. They allege she owned the stock of goods. Referee Bagby will hear the case probably next week.

Referee Bagby has set the 19th for hearing exceptions to a distribution of about $2,000 in the bankrupt matter of the Paducah Wagon Works.

Justice Gholson's Court.

County Attorney Allen Barkley will go out in the county tomorrow to attend Justice Gholson's court in the western portion of the county.

Two young men, one named Lee and another named Seay, will be tried, the latter for breach of peace and the former for cutting. They got into a dispute at a party given at Seay's home recently and came to blows. The case was set for last Saturday but continued on account of the inability of the county attorney to attend that day.

African Hospitality.

Hospitality may be considered as one of the characteristics of not only the Vels, but of the whole African race. It is considered the duty of every citizen to entertain strangers without the smallest compensation. Places of rest stand always open, and when these are found occupied by strangers a man goes and tells his wife, who will send her servants with water for the strangers to wash their feet, for, as they wear no shoes, they naturally need such an accommodation. Afterward rooms and cloth wrappers are given them, food is brought from all quarters or they are invited to eat with the people. They continue to be so provided for even if they stay months. Their garments are also washed and returned to them. On leaving they generally make a small gift to the wife of the host, though not more than two or three cola nuts or two or three English penicils.—Century.

What They Might Have Done.

A good story is told of two young Englishmen traveling in Europe. They had never thoroughly mastered any of the languages commonly spoken on the continent and were particularly weak in their French, knowing that language well enough by sight, but not having a speaking acquaintance with it. Finding themselves in a small French town one evening, they were desirous of obtaining a good cup of coffee. Knowing that cafe was coffee and that lait was milk, they endeavored to call for a judicious mixture of the two, but their articulation was so remarkable an order that they succeeded only in getting the coffee. Cafe au lait they tried without success. Then du lait it was attempted unavailingly. The suggestion that lait might be pronounced "light" was adopted equally in vain. Finally in despair one of the struggling youths exclaimed: "Well, it's mighty queer we don't know enough to get a little drop of milk."

"Do you want milk?" asked the waitress, opening her mouth for the first time.

"Yes," stammered the travelers, overwhelmed with surprise.

"Then why didn't you say so at first?" queried the girl as she doctored off.

And again the young men didn't know.—London Tit-Bits.

A Pingatist and Mr. Howells.

"When W. D. Howells," said a publisher, "was the editor of Harper's, a young man of humble and rough exterior one day submitted personally to him a poem.

"Mr. Howells looked over the poem. Then he said to the young man: 'Did you write this poem yourself?'

"Yes, sir. Do you like it?" the youth asked.

"I think it is magnificent," said Mr. Howells. "Did you compose it unaided?'

"I certainly did," said the young man firmly. "I wrote every line of it out of my own head."

"Mr. Howells rose and said: 'Then, Lord Byron, I am very glad to meet you. But I was under the impression that you had died at Missolonghi a good many years ago.'—New York Tribune

MAN WHO SUICIDED ONCE LIVED HERE

J. B. Nixon Shot Himself in Bath Room at Henderson.

Was Well Known in Western Kentucky—Two Brothers Also Lived Here.

THE CAUSE ONLY SURMISED.

J. B. Nixon, formerly of Hopkinsville, Ky., and for a time a resident of Paducah several years ago, yesterday committed suicide in a bathroom at Hotel Henderson at Henderson, Ky., by shooting himself through the heart with a 38-caliber revolver.

He will be remembered by a number of people here, although he was here only a short time. His two brothers, Harvey and Clarence Nixon, were carpenters here and worked for John Arts the well-known contractor. One is now a policeman at Hopkinsville.

The suicide is not without its sensational features.

Nixon's body was found by a bell boy. He came to the hotel ostensibly from St. Louis. He was thirty-five years of age and six feet tall, light complexioned and is a brother of W. H. Nixon, of Hopkinsville. He had a new suit case, in which was found clothing and some small personal belongings, also a policy of insurance for $16,000 in the New York Life, payable to his brother, and another policy, which was accident insurance for $15,000. There was a bank book in his grip showing that $318.68 had been deposited to his credit in the People's Bank of Pensacola, Fla. There was nothing in his baggage to indicate his calling or occupation.

In the suit case was found a clipping from the New Orleans Plain and Crescent of December 26, 1905. This clipping was dated at Pensacola, Fla., December 25, and told of the robbery of Kress and Company's store in that city of $800, and other valuables and saying that the store was set on fire. Written across the back of this item was, "I was neither the incendiary nor the burglar."

The Kress syndicate, it is understood, had offered a reward of $100 for the arrest of young Nixon.

Articles in his grip show that he had been all over the country.

There was a cut on his throat almost from ear to ear. This wound was apparently inflicted several days ago. At the time Nixon shot himself, he was in the bath tub and had the water turned on.

Formerly of Hopkinsville.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Jan. 19.—J. B. Nixon, who committed suicide in Henderson, was a native of this place and left here a few years ago to work in a department store at Pensacola. He left a young wife here, who afterward obtained a divorce. Rumors came about two weeks ago that he was in trouble at Pensacola in connection with his business and the Chief of Police here was notified to be on the look out for him. The news came that Nixon was in Los Angeles, Cal., but he had notified persons in Pensacola that he would be in Hopkinsville January 15. A few days ago, he was again located in Omaha. Nothing had been heard from him since until the news of his suicide came. He has a brother, who is an officer on the local police force and other relatives here. His body will be brought to this city.

GOES TO SHREVEPORT.

Mr. James E. English Leaves to Open a Stock Broker's Business

Mr. James E. English, former manager of the Kentucky theater and broker, left last evening for Shreveport, La., where he will open a stock broker's business, and has every indication of success. Mr. English was recently in Shreveport and made arrangements for opening his office about the first of the month and feels greatly encouraged over his prospects.

His family will remain in Paducah until later in the year and Mr. English expects to be in Paducah every thirty days in the meantime. He has been one of Paducah's most enterprising and up-to-date business men and his success in the Louisiana city is assured. He had been in business here for about ten years.

A NEW COW LAW MAY SOON BE PASSED

The Present Case in Appellate Court Ordered Dismissed---Board of Aldermen Meet.

The board of aldermen last night at its regular meeting decided to have City Solicitor Campbell and City Prosecutor Harrison confer and draw up a cow ordinance that will stick.

The aldermen also voted to hold a conference with Owen Brothers regarding a ferry franchise. The ferryboat is now running without a franchise, as the franchise the city insisted on putting up for sale was unsatisfactory that no one would buy it.

The aldermen also ordered an ordinance prohibiting roller skating on the public sidewalks.

A petition from the school board asking for $40,000 for running expenses this year was received and filed.

A petition from the Sherrill-Russell Lumber Co., asking for a conference with a committee relative to exempting the firm from municipal taxation, was received and filed.

A complaint was read from the board of works that the telephone companies had been meddling with city wires without permission, having lowered several wires to avoid putting up taller poles was referred to the solicitor and joint light committee.

The finance committee report was read, received and filed. It showed a total of $12,766.31 for salaries, accounts, etc.

The following ordinances were acted on.

Ordinance fixing license tax on business, professions, manufacturers, etc., first passage.

Ordinance fixing the apportionment of public funds, as heretofore published; first passage.

A report from Fire Chief Jas. Woods was read. A recommendation to rebuild a small outhouse at station No. 2, was made. The report was received and filed.

The Geo. Goodman Liquor Co. was granted a transfer of license from 115 South Second street, to 106 North Second street.

A petition was read from retail coal dealers asking that the license be reduced from $35 to $25. The petition was addressed to Oscar Starks, mayor pro tem, and the board of aldermen. They did not want to handle any side-line, and thought that the extra $10 added this year for the side-line should be eliminated. The matter was referred.

A petition was read from property owners asking that no saloon license be issued for a saloon at 12th and Trimble streets, and if a license has been issued to annul it. The petition was signed by many property owners and residents. The matter was held up pending the filing of the application.

asking for relief from alleged over-assessment was referred.

A petition was read from Ed. Martina asking for a rebate on alleged erroneous assessment. He claims he paid taxes on property which had been paid by another, the real owner of the property.

Steve Comepean asked that he be rented the box house on the new cemetery ground, but wanted a reduction in rent. The matter was referred.

A petition for the extension of water mains on Jones street, west, was referred.

Pres. Ed. P. C. road and Paducah Traction Co. The two companies agree to give in stone and cement $100 each. He stated the work would begin as soon as spring came and the weather is such that the work can progress without delay. This matter has been in hands of the board of works with power to act since last summer.

On motion of Alderman Bell the fire commissioners were ordered to buy two horses for the fire engine to be installed at station No. 2. This engine will be installed in order to get a good water pressure in the mill district in Mechanicsburg.

Alderman Farley reported a bill board in very bad shape near Island creek bridge. He stated it was weak and moreover set too near the street. He suggested an ordinance require all bill boards to be set back of the pavements about twelve feet, and that they be kept in good condition.

President Starks stated that it had been suggested that a new cow ordinance be drafted and the ordinance now before the court of appeals dismissed. The ordinance committee and solicitor were ordered to draft such an ordinance and to have the case now in the appellate

CHAPTER XVII.

I PARTED from the view at the gates of the castle and hurried through the park in a lively state of anxiety. I had not yet conceived for myself what had happened in the interval of my absence. Sercombe, to be sure, had thrown out hints, but I knew better than to put any faith in him. Still it was certain that something might have happened, and we might even now be in possession of the treasure. But what gave me my first blow was the sight of the drawbridge peacefully spanning the waters of the moat, and the spikes of the portcullis protruding just below the archway. These appearances seemed to point in one direction and to me.

Inside I met Mrs. Malm, who started in alarm and pursued me with her excited inquiries—so that it was very plain whence the news of my disappearance had reached the police. She informed me that Mr. Sheppard and Mr. Montgomery were both within and seated, in fact, at lunch. In the dining room, therefore, I sought them and broke in upon them. I will not say with what delight I was welcomed, embraced affectionately by Sheppard and sturdily shaken by Montgomery's great fist. They had been anxious, and yet not alarmed, by my absence. Sheppard's wife was always quick, and said he:

"I knew that it was not worth their while to slaughter you, Ned, but what other destination they might be up to I could not guess. On the whole, we decided finally in favor of what actually occurred." And then, "So you were taken?" he asked. "But how?"

"Give me food and wine and I will give you my story," I replied, sitting down to the table.

Sheppard laid his hand on my shoulder. "No," said he, "not yet. There is something further first." And, looking at him, I perceived a great gravity on his features. He showed a worn and troubled face, now that the excitement of my return was over.

"What is the matter?" I asked. "Is the treasure?"

"That is it," he said. "I want that key. We tried the door in vain. We could not break it down. It is a damn good lock. God knows it was not for want of trying."

"I fear the key is no use to us now," I said quietly.

He regarded me seriously and with a pale face.

"You must forget, Ned," he said gently, "what you left there."

Montgomery's face had fallen, and he sat looking at Sheppard's consternation. Suddenly a light dawned on me. It was flood they had in mind.

"Hood's part there," I said. Sheppard stared at me.

"Not a bit of it," I went on. "He's plump and live as ever and a worse rascal."

"But how—but why?" exclaimed Montgomery. "I thought the poor devil was dead and rotten by now. We tried all we could."

"Oh, I see I must listen on to my story without more ado," I said, and accordingly began at once upon my narrative. Chagrin grew upon their faces as I proceeded, and I was interrupted only by the expressions of astonishment and anger which the various episodes of my adventure evoked from both. When it was over, Sheppard rose.

"With your leave, Ned," said he, "I will go down to the keep forthwith." And he left the room, with Montgomery at his heels. I, too, followed, for I was eager to know the worst without unnecessary delay.

My surmises were quite correct. The dungeon rested as it had done when I saw it last and apparently had suffered no trespass. The chests stood in the corner as before, but they were bare of every piece of gold, silver or jewel. The thieves had made a clean job of their depredation. We stared at one another in dismay and retreated dismally to the upper regions of the house.

"Well, there's an end," said Montgomery, with a sigh, and I fancy we were all of the same opinion in that early blast of despair.

"The treasure was gone, and he must be a sharp fellow indeed who could discover its hiding place throughout the district of the Gwent or maybe within the borders of the kingdom. Sheppard was the first to show us the way out of our deadly snafu."

"I am not going to see it stop here, Ned," he said, with determination. "And that's the truth. That treasure must be somewhere, and we've got to find it."

"I say 'Motto' to that," cried Montgomery sturdily, heaving a sigh of resolution.

"If we could narrow the field," I said. "Pshaw," said Sheppard. "They can't have got it far. How many days is it? Why, they can't have got the money out all at one shot; otherwise they would not have kept you locked up. I'll go back that the last was fetched out last night. If as early as that. And, if so, the treasure is not very far from the castle."

"Some of it may be in London," I answered merrily.

"Well, mind you, I don't admit it. But say it is so, there must be something still about the Gwent, and we've got to run it down. I think, from what you say, you surprised them by your flitting with the view. It is evident that they wished to keep you a little longer, no doubt until they had disposed of the treasure under our noses."

"You are right, I believe," I replied. "Why did they want to keep me? Not because they had not the treasure, but to prevent an alarm. And yet the motive was not strong enough that they dared risk a misunderstanding with Morgan. Yes; you've hit it, Sheppard. But the thieving is wide enough, heaven knows."

"Come, we have reached one point," said Sheppard. "Perhaps we can do more on collection. Don't let us give it up. Is this treasure likely to be anywhere about the barn?"

"There is the barn," said I, "and the stable loft, and there are the cellars."

"Oh, Ned, there is everywhere," groaned Sheppard. "We might watch, if they haven't got it away," suggested Montgomery, with some hesitation. It was not often that he intervened in our councils, but his intervention was now to the point.

"Good," said Sheppard, smacking him on the shoulder.

"Watch is the word. We've hitherto kept our watches in the battlements. We must now merely transfer them to where the treasure has gone."

"Where is that?" I asked.

"Let us say the Woodman," replied Sheppard, smiling.

"A very much more dangerous duty," I said slowly.

"Dangerous! We thrive on danger," said Sheppard gayly. "Anyhow, let us break up the conference and take our things. There's nothing to keep us now in the castle, and hence we are in no need of drawbridges. It is we who are the assailants."

"That reminds me," I put in. "I found the drawbridge down when I came in just now."

Sheppard winked. "My dear boy, if you had to answer all the awkward questions I have had to during the last three days you would have let down the drawbridge in despair."

"Motto?" I queried.

"Jones it is, the majesty of the law, and an infernally suspicious law it is."

It was yet early in the afternoon, and there might be time to put a point upon our resolutions. This thought ran in our heads as, all three, we turned down the road that led to the Woodman.

Sercombe was sunning himself before the door of the inn, seated in a comfortable chair beneath the swinging sign. As we came abreast of him he looked up and greeted us.

"Good day, gentlemen," he said cheerfully. "I'm glad to see you back, Mr. Grestore. We heard that you had disappeared, and were beginning to be anxious about you."

The amazing impudence of the man took away my breath, but I managed to recover and say:

"Yes, I have been taking a little holiday; private business, you know, captain."

"Ah!" said he, shaking his head. "I wish I had the time. But I find holidays must look after themselves. I've 'oo much on hand."

"I sympathize with you, Captain Sercombe," said Sheppard. "For myself, I never could abide business. But I think I understand to what you referred to business, a very bad business."

Sercombe studied him attentively. "You seem to know a great deal, my dear sir," he replied.

"I know, and you know that I know."

A Trite Saying.

It is a trite saying that no man is stronger than his stomach. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery strengthens the stomach—puts it in shape to make pure, rich blood—helps the liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body and thus cures both liver and kidney troubles. If you take this natural blood purifier and tonic, you will assist your system in manufacturing each day a pint of rich, red blood, that is invigorating to the brain and nerves. The weak, nervous, run-down, debilitated condition which so many people suffer from, is usually the effect of poisons in the blood. It is often indicated by pimples or boils appearing on the skin, the face becomes thin and the feelings "blue." Dr. Pierce's "Discovery" cures all blood humors as well as being a tonic that makes one vigorous, strong and forceful. It is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes that contains neither alcohol nor harmful habit-forming drugs, and the only one every ingredient of which has the professional endorsement of the leading medical writers of this country. Some of the endorsements are published in a little book of extracts from standard medical works and will be sent to any address free, on receipt of request therefor by letter or postal card, addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. It tells just what Dr. Pierce's medicines are made of. The "Words of Fraise" for the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, by leaders in all the several schools of medical practice, and recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised, should have far more weight with the sick and afflicted than any amount of the so-called "testimonial" so conspicuously flaunted by the public by those who are afraid to let the ingredients of which their medicines are composed be known. Bear in mind that the "Golden Medical Discovery" has THE BADGE OF HONESTY on every bottle wrapper, in a full list of its ingredients.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation, invigorate the liver and regulate stomach and bowels.

Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

that you have the heaviest team to drive uphill that ever man undertook," said Sheppard, watching him.

"Maybe," said the captain after a pause. "Life's not all beer and skittles, gentlemen. Perhaps you're right. I don't say you're wrong. But the fact is that I—well, it's a pity we couldn't have fixed an arrangement together earlier."

He spoke so freely that I inferred he was not any longer in the fear of Hood, which meant for us that Hood was absent.

Was he absent, looking after the treasure? Upon consideration I decided that this was unlikely; otherwise Sercombe would not be resting so comfortably in his chair. The two seconds dured not trust one another. In that case the odds were that the treasure lay in the Woodman, and here was Sercombe, and as likely as not a Creek or two, keeping guard upon it. This was all I wanted to know, and, having gained this information, I deemed it time to retire. You will think me rash in my conjectures, but you must conceive that in the game we were playing it was necessary to come to a conclusion quickly, and I had learned to come to a conclusion on the slightest evidence. Anyhow, I gave the signal for retreat, and back we went to the castle by a circuitous route, so as to avoid any suspicious on the part of the captain.

Night was the occasion I wanted, and it was for the full of dark that we waited with great impatience. Sheppard part agreed with me that the treasure lay in the inn and most probably in the cellars. The two thieves would secure it against one another. I admit that I entertained little hope of cutting out the treasure under the noses of the enemy. On the other hand, it would be difficult to say what I really did anticipate or aim at in this nocturnal expedition. I think we all felt that we could not compose our minds to rest and an imperforable indifference. We must be upon our legs and bustling about some business, even though it should prove the veriest moonshine, and I believe, too, that a notion was current among us that we might by some felicitous chance or by some heroic effort accomplish something under the cover of darkness. If we might not actually wrest from its abominable holders the gold and jewels of the treasure. At 10 o'clock we three were gathered within the shelter of the deep thicket before the Woodman. Montgomery had taken up his position there by light, but reported that there had been no movement in the inn.

RAILROAD NOTES

GOOD PASSENGER BUSINESS AT PRESENT—MINOR NOTES.

Important Improvements Being Made On the Mattoon Division.

Mr. A. H. Egan, superintendent of the Louisville division of the I. C. was in Paducah last night and left for his division this morning on a tour of inspection.

The division is running as smoothly as possible and aside from delays in heavy passenger traffic south, the passenger trains are running on time. The low rates offered to home-seekers in the south and west are attracting hundreds to the south and the night trains are loaded down with human freight to such an extent that extra cars have to be added.

The Illinois Central has improved its road between Evansville and Mattoon, Ill.

The management has put down 85-pound rails on every foot of ground between the two points.

It took several months to do the job and work has just been completed.

Ballasting will commence soon on the roadbed. Crushed stone will be used.

The Illinois Central road between Evansville and Mattoon was at one time the main line of the Peoria, Decatur and Evansville railroad. Under this management it was allowed to go to pieces until purchased by the I. C. several years ago.

Thousands of dollars are being spent by the I. C. in the improvement of their various roads.

Minor Railroad Notes.

Train No. 103, from Louisville to New Orleans, was delayed several hours this morning by heavy passenger traffic.

Master Mechanic Turnbull went to Princeton this morning on business.

Mrs. Dick Tolbert, wife of the I. C. day watchman, is ill of fever.

Mrs. William Little has returned from Cairo, where she had gone to attend the bedside of her son, John Little, who had a foot cut off several weeks ago at Cairo. The boy is better and will be able to return home in two weeks.

Mr. Harry Judd, the I. C. pattern maker, is ill and unable to be on duty.

Mr. Evan Prosser, traveling passenger agent for the B. & O. S. W. road, was in Paducah last night on business. Mr. Prosser is a prominent Republican politician in Southern Indiana, his home being near New Albany, and a few days ago withdrew as a candidate for chairman of his district committee.

Pleasant and Most Effective.

T. J. Chambers, Ed. Vindicator, Liberty, Texas, writes Dec. 25, 1902: "With pleasure and unsolicited by you, I bear testimony to the curative power of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I have used it in my family and can cheerfully affirm it is the most effective and best remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used." Sold by Alvey & List.

Union City Police.

Union City, Tenn., Jan. 19.—At a meeting of the board of mayor and aldermen Chief of Police Frank Pardee was re-elected, as was Allen Wade, superintendent of the light and water plant; Tom Brown, night policeman; Dave Yates, street overseer. All have made good and efficient officers, and their re-election meets with general approval.

Rev. Carlisle P. B. Martin, L. L. D.

Of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." Sold by Alvey & List.

Paducah Hunters' Luck.

Tuesday, on the Royal, Messrs. Gus Brahe and William Probst returned to their homes in Paducah, after spending a few days in town and about the low-head hunting ducks and geese. They carried back with them eight geese, six ducks and one "Molly hare," to pay them for their cunning work and sharp shooting.—Smithland Banner.

Cured Lumbago.

A. B. Canman, Chicago, writes March 4 1903. "Having been troubled with lumbago, at different times and tried one physician after another then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more, and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of sufferers." Sold by Alvey & List.

Free Visits to Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia on New York Tickets.

Passengers over Pennsylvania Lines may, without a cent of additional fare, visit Washington and Baltimore if, when purchasing first-class tickets to Philadelphia or New York, they ask to have them routed via Washington.

Ten days' stop-over is allowed at Washington. Tourists are enabled to see the many points of interest in and around the national capital; view the magnificent Congressional Library which ranks among the world's grandest buildings; observe the making of money in the United States Treasury; admire the treasures in the Corcoran Art Gallery; go through the Botanical Garden, the Navy Yard, the Marine Barracks, the Arsenal, the Patent Office, the Smithsonian Institution, the National Museum; meet foremost men in the affairs of the nation; see the National Capitol, the Supreme Court, Washington Monument, the State, War, Navy, Postoffice, Pension and other departments; view the new offices of the President provided in White House Alterations; and visit Mt. Vernon, the home of George Washington.

Ten days' stop-over is also allowed at Baltimore, permitting a memorable visit to Druid Hill park, the Peabody Institute, John Hopkins University, the ship yards, oyster fisheries, cotton mills, the many rich libraries, and a few of the stately memorial-shrines from which the "Monumental City" derives its name. Including the Washington Monument, a column of Maryland marble 150 feet high, Rinehart's colossal bronze of Chief Justice Taney, the Odd Fellows or Wilkey Monument, the Ridgely Memorial, and the monument to Edgar Allan Poe. There is also a view of the business district of Baltimore, risen from the ashes of the $150,000,000 fire.

The stop-over privileges on tickets to New York over Pennsylvania Lines also include ten days at Philadelphia, advantageous alike to business travelers and sight-seers. Visitors may view a wealth of historical features in this city: Independence Hall, where the Declaration of Independence was signed, the United States Mint, where gold and silver coins are made in full view; Fairmount Park, Drexel Institute, University of Pennsylvania, Girard College, Old Liberty Bell, the shipyards, League Island Navy Yard. It is only an hour's ride from Philadelphia to the health-giving air of old ocean at Atlantic City, the world's greatest seashore resort.

SHEEP STARVING.

CITY PRIMARY IS NEXT THURSDAY

There is Little Enthusiasm
But Much Speculation

Conservative Citizens Are Awaiting Action of Republican Convention.

WILL BE CALLED NEXT MONTH

Thursday, between the hours of 6 a. m. and 4 p. m., Democrats of Paducah will ballot in primary for nominations for mayor, city attorney, city treasurer, city clerk, assessor, engineer, 5 aldermen, 7 councilmen and 8 school trustees. All Democrats registered as such, or who have become 21 since registration, or who will make affidavit as to reasons why they were prevented from registering, may participate.

Apathy marked the progress of the long campaign up to about one week ago, when speculative interest was aroused in the approaching event, and considerable betting as to the outcome, has in a measure supplied a deficiency in popular enthusiasm. Radicalism seems to be promised by Democracy in municipal affairs in Paducah, and conservative citizens, who have the public interest at heart are turning toward the Republican party this spring, anticipating as the result of the city convention, the selection of sound, public spirited citizens, who will enact, administer and enforce laws in such a way to insure protection of life and property and the pursuit of happiness, regardless of class distinctions.

That such a sensible spirit will dominate the proceedings of the Republican convention, is the logical conclusion of the factional strife that is rending the Democratic organization and indicated in the speech of men, who have always taken an active part in Republican politics.

Arrangements for the convention, it is understood, will be made as soon as the result of the Democratic primary is seen and fully comprehended.

Democratic Candidates.

Following is a list of Democratic candidates:

Mayor—Thomas B. Harrison, Joseph E. Potter and G. R. Davis.
City Attorney—A. L. Harper, Frank Lucas and John G. Miller, Jr.
City Treasurer—William Kraus and John W. McKnight.
City Clerk—Henry Bailey and Maurice McIntyre.
City Assessor—Stewart Dick and William Orr.
City Engineer—L. A. Washington.
City Jailor—Joseph A. Purchase, William Rogers, Samuel Beadles, Al Hymarsh, William T. Read, Samuel S. Eaker, Mann W. Clark, R. M. Miles and William Fowler.

Aldermen.

Frank B. Smith, A. W. Grief, Harry George, Andy Nieman, George E. Rouse, Lillard Sanders, James P. Steeth, W. P. Hummel, Virgil Sherrill and J. S. Hunt.

Councilmen.

First Ward—C. W. Morrison, George Hannan and W. N. Warren.
Second Ward—A. F. Williams, James F. Downs and Luther Graham.
Third Ward—Oliver P. Leigh.

Fifth Ward—Albert Metcalf and Lum Butler.
Sixth Ward—Charles King, Mote S. Price, Henry Brame and W. T. Goodman.

CLASS PINS.

Are Being Won Today By High School Seniors.
Members of the graduating class of the High school are wearing their class pins for the first time today. They are neat and attractive. The base is an irregular surface with the raised letters "P. H. S." and at the center a raised triangle with black enamel and "97", carrying out the class colors, black and gold.

WEATHER FORECAST.

COLDER.

Prombly showers tonight or Tuesday, colder Tuesday and in west portion tonight. Highest temperature yesterday, 80; lowest today, 58.

RESCUE IMMINENT.

Johnstone, Va., April 29.—At the general offices of Herwind White Coal company it was stated this morning that the seven men imprisoned in the mines Saturday probably will be rescued today. The mine is rapidly being drained of water, which cut off the miners. Tappings are heard that indicate some men, at least, are alive.

SUCCESSFUL ROBBERY.

St. Paul, April 29.—When Harry Rickes, manager of the Metropolitan opera house, finished counting up receipts last night, a robber struck him over the head with a blunt weapon and got away with $2,850. Rickes was not seriously injured.

CREW PERISHED.

Rio de Janeiro, April 29.—It is reported here that the British steamer Brownhill, bound for Rio de Janeiro, was destroyed by fire during the voyage. The crew perished.

MOTION DENIED.

New York, April 29.—Justice Fitzgerald today denied the motion by counsel for Harry Thaw that the clerk of the court be instructed to return to Thaw all exhibits in his recent trial for murder of Stanford White. Reference was made especially to a letter written by Thaw to Delphin Delmas during the trial. These letters were included in the statement presented to the Immu commission by Delmas.

WILL NOT SUBMIT.

Fernie, B. C., April 29.—By referendum vote miners of the Canadian mine district refused to return to work in compliance with the new law. The situation is desperate and the whole country is in want of fuel, railroads having confiscated all coal. If the government attempts to arrest men for violation of the new law 3,000 men here must be imprisoned.

STROMBOLI ACTIVE.

Naples, April 29.—The volcano of Stromboli is in active eruption and residents of surrounding islands and Sicily, and Acute are panic stricken, fearing destruction by earthquake will follow the eruption. Slight shocks have been felt in various parts of Italy. These have added to the fear of the people. Ashes and clinders from the volcano have caused great damage.

END OF ROMANCE.

Philadelphia, April 29.—Alexis Frank, shot and killed Mary Carlee, and then killed himself. They were lovers in Russia and quarrelled. She came to America. Frank followed and spent two months seeking her. He met her on the street today and less than two minutes later both were dead.

BODIES OF INFANTS.

Elgin, Ill., April 29.—While fishing in Fox river, Stephen Boras hooked a bundle of cloth bag, which he pulled ashore and found it contained bodies of three infants, twin boys and girl. Whence they came is unknown.

MRS. DOWIE'S VENTURE.

Muskogee, Mich., April 29.—Dowie's widow is taking boarders. Ben Macdonald, Dowie's former beautiful summer home near here was turned into a summer boarding house. Dowie would never allow smoking on the premises, but Mrs. Dowie says guests may smoke if they wish to.

CASH REGISTERS BURGLARS' PRIZE

They Secure $58 in Sam B. Gott's Saloon

Druggist Finds His Register, Completely Demolished, Lying in Back Yard.

LOSS ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS

Burglars made a good haul at Sam B. Gott's saloon and restaurant, 119 North Fourth street, this morning between 2 and 5 o'clock, securing $58 in cash. Entrance was effected through a rear door on the south side of the building. A glass was broken out and the latch lifted. The cash register was opened and also the change box rifled, most of the money being taken from the cash box. The burglary was discovered on opening up the place this morning, the side door being found open and the cash register drawer standing out. Proprietor Sam Gott says that he may have lost more than $58, but this amount he knows was taken. No stock has been missed. The restaurant department keeps open until after 1 o'clock, and was closed this morning just before two.

Using as a ladder one section of a fence which was stored in the back yard, burglars entered through a rear window Iverson & Wallace's drug store, Seventh and Washington streets, Sunday morning and completely destroyed the cash register, securing a small amount of cash. Nothing was missed from the stock.

Dr. Blee Wallace opened the store Sunday morning between 6 and 7 o'clock. Going to the rear he found the window open and the cash register missing from its place. He opened the rear door and a search revealed the demolished cash register near an alley in the corner of the yard. It had been completely wrecked, only the keys remaining intact. The drawers were broken into bits, the drawers smashed and portions of the broken iron sides scattered all over the yard.

The burglars had used an ax in prizing open the window and had pitched the register out the window, not taking the trouble to open the back door. The ax was also used in smashing the register, being found nearby. Dr. Wallace estimates the loss at about $100.

SECURE OPTIONS ON SCHOOL SITE

Committee of Trustees Will be Ready to Report to Board This Week. When Matter Will be Finally Decided

ALLEN PROPERTY TOO HIGH

Options on a quarter of a block of ground in the southern part of the city, are being secured today by the committee of the school board, which was appointed to secure a site for the new public school building. It is known that the Lyon property on Clark street is not now considered and the Allen property at Eleventh and Ohio streets, which seemed to be a desirable site was held at what the committee considered an exorbitant price. The owners wanted $6,000 for the quarter of a block of ground. As soon as the options are secured in writing, a meeting of the school board to ratify or reject the selection, will be called. The called meeting will be held Tuesday or Wednesday night.

STEAL LAPROBES DURING SERVICE

During the evening service at the Bellevue Baptist church three miles from Paducah on the Mayfield road, some thief stole all the lap robes and whips left in the carriages by the roadside. A reward of $6 was made up to capture the rogue. One horse was nabbed and the rein taken, leaving the horse standing, untied.

TRYING TO RIDE BOTH PARTIES.

PRESBYTERY TO OPEN TOMORROW

Delegates From 15 Churches Conveno for Three Days Session at First Church—Reception Planned

SERMON BY THE REV. ANDREAS

Delegates, including the pastor and one elder from each of the 15 churches in this presbytery, will arrive in Paducah tomorrow to attend the session of the Paducah Presbytery, which convenes at the First Presbyterian church tomorrow night at 7:45 o'clock. The opening sermon will be preached by the retiring moderator, the Rev. Benjamin Andreas, of Marion, after which his successor will be elected. Dr. Andreas is a most eloquent pulpit orator, and is well known in Paducah. A large attendance is anticipated to hear the opening sermon.

The presbytery will remain in session Wednesday and Thursday, meeting from 9 to 12 a. m., and from 2 to 5 p. m.

On Wednesday night a reception to the delegates and the congregation will be given under the auspices of the Young Ladies' society. A special program and refreshments are prepared.

The Presbytery will elect two commissioners, a minister and an elder, to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, south, which convenes at Birmingham, Ala., May 18.

Among the churches represented in this presbytery are Paducah, Henderson, Marion, Corydon, Ridgeway, Morganfield, Spring Grove, Uniontown, Princeton, Madisonville, Fulton, Hickman and Columbus.

Elder J. M. Brunson is delegate from the First church.

ROBERT WILKINS GOES TO REWARD

Confederate Veteran and Old Citizen of County Dies of Bright's Disease at Home in This City

WAS KEEPER OF COUNTY FARM

Mr. Robert Wilkins, 70 years old, one of the oldest and most popular residents of the county, died of Bright's disease, Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at his home on Gosholt avenue, after a lingering illness. His family was at his bedside when death came.

Robert Wilkins was born in McCracken county, and reared in this end of the state. He was a farmer in his youth and later engaged in the tobacco business. For twelve years he was a merchant at Dublin, Graves county, and owned 800 acres of fine farm land in that section, which he lost in unfortunate dealings in tobacco. Removing to Paducah several years ago he was elected poor farm keeper by the fiscal court and served with credit for more than six years.

He leaves a wife and six children: Messrs. Dee, Charles, Robert, Jr., Santa and Rouse Wilkins, of Paducah, and Mrs. Ada Phelps, of Dublin, Graves county.

Robert Wilkins was a Confederate soldier and a member of James T. Walbert camp. The funeral was held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Christian chapel near his home. The burial was in Oak Grove cemetery. Many Confederate veterans and several magistrates attended the burial.

Mrs. Preston Sights, grandmother of Dr. H. P. Sights, of this city, died Tuesday in Corydon of general debility and was buried Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the family cemetery near Corydon. Dr. Sights attended.

GERMAN FARMERS PURCHASE FARMS

Terms have been agreed upon, whereby the 12 German farmers, who have been studying conditions in McCracken county, will purchase farms, and 15 more families will come here soon. This is the first settlement in the county since the immigration movement was started last fall.

MUSIC FESTIVAL AT LEAGUE PARK

Woman's Club is Sponsor For Big Attraction to be Presented Next Month With Innes Band

DETAILS ARE TO BE ARRANGED

A May festival with Innes' band as one feature, will be given on May 24 by the Woman's club, arrangements having been completed this morning. The details have been referred to a committee, and while it will be the first entertainment of its kind ever given in Paducah, it will be elaborate in every detail.

This morning a meeting of the Woman's club with Manager John S. Bleecker, of the Paducah Traction company and Agent Schountz, of Innes band, was held and Mr. Schountz was instructed to go ahead and book the date for the great band. The matter of arranging a program and minor details was left to Messrs. John S. Bleecker, and H. C. Rhodes and they will begin working on the program at once.

"We will have hundreds of children in the festival", Mr. Bleecker explained, "and will make it as elaborate as possible. The ball park will be used for the entertainment, a large platform being erected in the center of the park. Celebrated soloists will be secured and we believe it will be one of the biggest musical festivals ever given in the state."

DATE IS SET FOR BISHOP'S COMING

The Right Reverend Charles E. Woodcock of Louisville, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Kentucky, will be in Paducah, Sunday, May 12, to dedicate the Gould Memorial baptistry of Grace Episcopal church and will preach morning and evening.

MARSHAL BROWN BUSY.

Goes to Benton to Get Hootlegger From the Jail.

Wade Brown, deputy United States marshal, went to Benton this morning to secure Sanford White, colored, for hootlegging. White is in the Benton jail serving a term for the same offense, the term expiring today. White will be presented before Commissioner W. A. Gardner this afternoon.

RETAIL DEALERS REFUSE TO ANSWER

Postpone Hearing of Coal Operators' Complaints

Fact Brought Out That Louisville Men All Charge Same Price To the Consumer.

QUESTION OF LAW INVOLVED

Louisville retail coal dealers have delayed the federal investigation into the Kentucky coal situation.

C. M. Riker, manager of the West Kentucky Coal company, has returned from Louisville, where he attended the interstate commerce commission investigation of charges against the Illinois Central railroad made particularly by western Kentucky coal operators. In the evidence adduced thus far Mr. Riker thinks no strong case has been made against the railroad to show that the car shortage was due to causes within its power to remedy. However, the investigation once begun has developed in interest and importance until no definite adjournment is in sight. The investigation has now been carried into the retail trade and before it is closed, may have altogether unexpected results.

The line of evidence given the commission, brought on a discussion of retail conditions and it was found necessary to summon Louisville coal dealers to testify. By their refusing to answer the questions put to them by the federal attorneys conducting the investigation for the commission, the sitting of the commission has been postponed until the United States attorney-general can render a decision on the point whether they can be made to answer the commission's interrogations. Meanwhile the investigation rests.

It was shown that Louisville retail dealers in coal have one price. This stagnation in competition, the commission thought indicated an agreement and questions along this line the retail dealers refused to answer. If the attorney-general says they shall answer, the retail dealers may carry their point to the courts and thus delay the case indefinitely, though make it one of national importance. The government gained a victory in the investigation of the tobacco trust when the supreme court ruled that the books of the trust were open to the commission and it is believed that the retail dealers in Louisville can be made to answer all questions, though whether they would be considered a subject for interstate investigation is doubtful. Doing business in one state, they may not come within the jurisdiction of the federal restraint of trade laws.

Owing to the size of the Ohio valley coal interests, the investigation with the developments thus far, is expected to bring many disputed points into courts and thus have a national importance. The commission already sees that the investigation in Kentucky will require more time than was expected. If the retail dealers cannot be investigated by the government, the state may take a hand. But it was pointed out that a large number of the retail dealers in Louisville, as in Paducah, are simply the agents of the big companies doing an interstate business and in that event, they could be made to answer questions, the same as the company officers.

SIX HORSES ROUNDED UP.

Lycurgus Rice Finds Drove on Harahan Boulevard.

Lycurgus Rice, stock policeman, looked like a herder this morning as he came down Jefferson street with six head of stock under arrest. The policeman found three horses, two mule colts and one colt loose on Harahan boulevard. They were stalled to await the claim of their owner.

GRAIN MARKET.

Chicagol, April 29.—Wheat, 31; corn, 34 1-2; oats, 46.

Mrs. Etile F. Rhemolph.

Mrs. Etile Florence Rudolph, 86 years old, widow of the late Dr. E. W. Rudolph, died Saturday at Bardwell and was buried Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. She was well known in her section. Mr. D. S. Overstreet, the well known coal merchant, is her uncle.

Perfect Womanhood

The greatest menace to woman's permanent happiness in life is the suffering that comes from some derangement of the feminine organs. Many thousands of women have realized this too late to save their health, barely in time to save their lives.

To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has headache, headache, bearing-down sensations, nervousness, irregularities or the "blues," she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as the great woman's remedy for woman's ills, made only of roots and herbs. It cures Female Complaints, such as Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and all Organic Diseases, and is invaluable in the Change of Life. It dissolves and Expels Tumors at an early stage. Subdues Faintness, Nervous Prostration, Exhaustion, and strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility, Indigestion, and invigorates the whole female system. It is an excellent remedy for derangements of the Kidneys in either sex.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

CHIEF MARSHAL

WILL BE MAJOR GENERAL, BOILING OF VIRGINIA.

General Stephen D. Lee Promulgates Orders Concerning Confederate Reminon.

New York, April 29.—Maj. Gen. Boiling, commander of the Virginia division, U. C. V., is appointed chief marshal of the parade at the Richmond reunion of the Confederate veterans in a general order issued today by Stephen D. Lee, General commanding the U. C. V.

Maj. Gen. Boiling is also directed, upon the occasion of the parade, to place the senior brigadier general of his division in command of the Virginia division, and give his entire attention to the "important duty of chief marshal." The appointment of a Virginian as chief marshal is in accordance with the inviolable custom of choosing this officer from the state, in which the reunion is held.

Gen. Lee also issued the following: "It will be eminently fit that the gathering of the gallant remnant of the glorious army of Northern Virginia in the capital city of the Confederacy and on the sacred soil of Virginia shall in some way be associated with the immortal name of their great leader, Robert E. Lee, the hundredth anniversary of whose birth was celebrated with so much affection and enthusiasm throughout the country. The General commanding, therefore, announces that he has selected as orator on this occasion Col. Robert E. Lee, son of Gen. W. H. F. Lee, lovingly named by his Virginia associates as "Runy" Lee and grandson of the great Confederate General."

The Confederate Southern Memorial Association announced today that the eighth annual convention will be held in Richmond from May 30 to June 2, inclusive, simultaneously with the Confederate reunion.

POLICEMAN'S ILL LUCK.

Jack Sanders' House Burglarized Last Night.

Patrolman Jack Sanders, of the Fulton Station beat, thinks a "hoodoo" haunts ever his head. Yesterday morning before daybreak he fell while running after a fugitive and sprained his left wrist. Later when firing his pistol in practice a bullet missed the tree and going through a house five blocks away startled a young lady who was taking a bath. This morning Patrolman Sanders discovered on going home to breakfast that his house had been burglarized. The thieves had entered the kitchen window at his residence, No. 621 South Sixth street, but got nothing as far as can be discovered.

Klaw & Branger Merges Schuberts.
New York, April 29.—The anticipated merger of the Schubert's and Klaw & Branger, the theater managers, came to pass with the incorporation of the United States Amusement Co., of New Jersey. By the terms of the amalgamation, Klaw & Branger add to their interests the twenty-three theaters with which the Schuberts have heretofore fought the syndicate. From Schubert Bros. the trust gets play houses in the following cities: Brooklyn, Buffalo, Chattanooga, Columbus, Denver, Kansas City, Louisville, Milwaukee, New Orleans, Pittsburgh, Rochester, Springfield, Worcester and the Majestic theater in New York. Klaw & Branger contributed the Tremont, Boston; Grand Opera House Brooklyn; New Forest, Philadelphia, and the New York theater.

NEWS NOTES FROM SUNDAY PAPERS.

This is one Paducah woman's testimony.

Mrs. Walter Mathews, 1250 North Thirteenth street, Paducah, Ky., says: "I have used two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and they have done more to relieve me of a lame back and pain in my left side than all the other medicines I ever used. Before using them I suffered everything with my back and sides. At times I was hardly able to do my house work. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended so I procured them at Alvey & List's drug store, took them as directed and have been more than pleased with the results."

You Wind Your Watch Before It Runs Down—Not After.

That's a good plan to adopt with your system. Brace it up before it needs anything more serious than a Tonic.

VITAL VIM Will Not Cure All Ailments, But It Will Prevent Them.

VITAL VIM is a good name for a Tonic. It sounds like a Tonic. And VITAL VIM is a Tonic of a superior sort. It is new and has none of the prestige of old and tried remedies; but the merit is there and its reputation will grow with each bottle used.

Try it yourself: Buy a bottle from your Druggist. We are spending considerable money to get your trade—to induce you to buy the first bottle. Our whole endeavor is centered on selling the first bottle. Your future patronage will come unsolicited. VITAL VIM makes friends easily.

VITAL VIM is not a remedy for the desperately ill, nor for incurable diseases. It is a tonic only, but it is the best tonic. Pleasant to the taste; immediate in its effect.

Invigorating and Exhilarating.

If your system is run down or your nerves are unsteady; if your brain tires easily; if your blood is sluggish; if your appetite is poor, your digestion impaired or your vitality not up to the standard, VITAL VIM is for you. Its reconstructive powers are immense and its use a blessing.

VITAL VIM is a vegetable preparation, designed to assist nature in keeping the system up to a healthy normal condition. It is not a physic or a cure-all; just a tonic—and a better tonic than you ever used. Brace up your system before it needs anything more serious than a tonic. Take VITAL VIM now. You won't need a doctor later. The price is Fifty cents and you can get it of

NEW YORK LETTER.

New York, April 29.—The big Baranum & Bailey circus, which enjoyed a greater vogue this year than ever in New York, has taken to the woods and Buffalo Bill's inspiring Wild West show has assumed occupancy of the Madison Square garden.

Mr. Hammerstein, who has closed his season of grand opera at the Manhattan opera house, is immensely gratified with the outcome of his first year as an impresario. He has not alone established the Manhattan as a permanent institution, but has declared a profit, which, although not stupendous, is much of a surprise to him as well as to most of the public. At the outset Mr. Hammerstein had prepared himself for a loss upon his running expenses, reaching a sum anywhere up to $200,000, which was his cash working capital.

At the Belasco theater Miss Frances Starr in "The Rose of the Rancho" still plays to a thronged auditorium of "classy" men and women.

Edwin Foy appears to have scored a most decisive hit in "The Orchid" at the Herald Square theater. In its original London guise the piece was a rather stately and solemn affair, but when Mr. Foy's personality was injected into it a new state of things was immediately produced.

Grace George has made a real hit at Wallack's theater with her revival of Sardou's incomparable "Divorcons."

The Princess theater as a playhouse will go out of existence at the end of the coming week. It was a hoodoo until Henry Miller took hold of it and with Margaret Anglin as his associate star crowded it to the doors at every performance with "The Great Divide," "The Great Divide."

by the way, will be revived for the opening of Daly's theater in the autumn, still with Mr. Miller and Miss Anglin impersonating the principal characters.

Eleanor Robinson in "Salome Jane" is approaching the end of her first full season at the Liberty theater. She has completely filled the house with earnest admirers of her personality and her art, and might continue throughout the hot weather with Paul Armstrong's play if the management so desired. As it is, she will have a comparatively short vacation and will revive "Salome Jane" in the early fall before producing the poetic drama written for her special use by Edmond Rostand. Miss Robinson will be one of the very few stars to have played steadily in New York for two consecutive seasons.

Daily Thought.

"The cross is easier for him who takes it up than to him who drags it along."—J. E. Vaux.

In purchasing school property the school trustees should secure a whole block of ground, if possible. Sufficient space for ample play grounds should always be considered. Property is continually increasing in value, and after awhile Paducah may be confronted with the trouble experienced in the great cities, where values are almost prohibitive and playgrounds are scarce. We must give our city children opportunity to develop their legs and the only natural way of developing them is by running and playing. Gymnasiums do not take the place of free, unrestrained outdoor play. In a thousand years, at the rate now means of transportation and exigencies of city life are bringing our legs into disuse, we should produce a race of tadpoles.

"Eddie" Tate, the burglar who successfully covered the Peoria graft by wrecking the school board safe, and escaped from jail, was arrested in Chicago, while attempting to make restitution to a man, whom he had robbed. It is pleasant to observe that association with the Peoria grafters did not blind the burglar to all sense of honor.

Things are mighty quiet in Ohio.

his own state.

Celebrations of the birthdays of deceased patriots may be ostensibly in their memory, but we rather suspect the real motive is to afford opportunity for some living statesmen to appear before the public. Thus are the dead made stepping stones for the living.

These peasant members of the Russian donna, who visited the Czar and told him they would be faithful unto death to the autocracy, proved to the satisfaction of the world that they are enjoying all the measure of liberty to which they are entitled.

It certainly was lucky Mary Anderson Navarro did not make the dedication of the Louisville theater, named in her honor, an international event by attending. The Mary Ander-tinuous" hereafter.

nity's welfare, to get busy and do something to boom any enterprise in which we are deficient.

As not one in a hundred of our people has an adequate conception of the phenomenal development of Mayfield during recent years, we feel that a short review of its progress is in order.

It has not been long since Mayfield had nine saloons and only four churches. It now has no saloons and eleven churches.

At that time we had one $15,000 bank; we now have five banks with an aggregate capital of $650,000 and about $700,000 deposits, and a Young Men's Building and Loan Association with an authorized capital $500,000, over $450,000 of which has already been taken, with loans of $140,000.

As late of 1900 we had only 4,028 population; at present our population is estimated at from nine to ten thousand. The recent extension of the corporation having doubled the area of the city, and it is estimated added one-third to the present population.

Yet while this is all true, to our shame be it said, there is not a graded school within seven miles of our city limits and the children of a large per cent of our working people who are too poor to patronize the college or private schools and too young to spend a large part of their time in idleness. Quite a number of them have already been sent to the State Reformatory and there will be more to follow unless this defect is rem-died.—Mayfield Messenger.

RAILROAD NOTES.

Trainmaster L. E. McCabe and Traveling Engineer B. J. Feeney of the Paducah district of the Illinois Central, went up the division this morning on an inspection trip.

Four more cars of ice were received here this morning by the Illinois Central, and it is being stored in the ice house at the Union Station. For several weeks the road has been stocking ice, and the storage house is about full. Paducah is a distributing point on the district for ice.

The local Illinois Central wrecker was called out yesterday morning to replace several derailed cars on the

A RELIABLE
SPRING MEDICINE

"At this season of the year there is hardly a man, woman or child in Paducah who does not need a medicine to purify and enrich the blood, to induce an appetite, to promote digestion and create strength, and we are safe in saying we have never sold anything in our store equal to Vinol for this purpose."

This new way of administering the medicinal properties of cod liver oil has wrought a wonderful change in the field of medicine. There is no need to take greasy cod liver oil, emulsions or drugs to purify and enrich the blood and create health and strength, for we guarantee that pure, simple and delicious cod liver and iron preparation Vinol, will do it, or your money will be returned.

Mrs. Rosa Lavigne, of Burlington, Vt., writes: "Vinol is the best spring medicine I have ever used; it creates an appetite, purifies the blood and takes away all feeling of lassitude."

Said Mr. W. B. McPherson, our local druggist: "We could go on quoting from hundreds of such letters, but simply ask the people of Paducah to try Vinol this spring on our guarantee to return money if they are not benefited." W. B. McPherson, Druggist.

Note—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Paducah, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

Three were "picked up" at St. Charles and one at Nortonville.
The trip was made from Paducah and return between 7 a. m. and 8 p. m., a remarkable fast "job."

Mr. C. F. Akers, the air man in the Illinois Central shops, was off duty today to attend the funeral of Mr. Robert Wilkins.

Mr. A. O. Hobbs, a car repairer, dropped a piece of iron on his right foot Saturday while working in the Illinois Central shop yards, and was crippled and will be unable to work for several days.

Mr. John Trent, storekeeper for the Illinois Central will leave tomorrow for St. Louis to take charge of the railroad department of the St.
Johns-Mannville company, of New York.

Mr. J. M. Taylor, general storekeeper, and Joseph E. Baker, assistant superintendent of machinery of the Illinois Central, will arrive tomorrow on an inspection trip from Chicago.

ments and every character of engraved work is given careful, personal attention at the Sun job office.

Captain Watt Wilkie, president and E. G. Riggs, traffic manager of the Chattanooga Packet company are in the city today on business connected with their company. Since this line began running, it has been successful and only a low stage of the river will prevent continuous operation.

The steamer Chattanooga, of the Chattanooga Packet company arrived from Chattanooga Sunday evening with a good trip. The river at certain places in the upper Tennessee is getting low and in taking on freight this has to be considered, so as not to load the boat too heavily.
Whenever the government sees fit to improve the Tennessee river an all-the-year-round line can be operated. The Chattanooga will leave Wednesday at noon for Chattanooga.

The excursion run by the steamer
J. S. Sunday to Calro was largely patronized. The J. S. is a fine boat and the warm day after the cool weather brought out a large crowd.
The trip was made from 9 o'clock in the morning until the same hour in the evening. Today the J. S. left for Evansville to run an excursion and will return this week to go to Nashville for an excursion.

The W. W. an excursion steamer under the same management as the J. S., will go to the Mississippi river above St. Louis today for a series of excursions.

After an overhauling process, the towboat Wilmo, purchased from the Pittsburg Coal company by the Holcomb-Hayes Tle company, will come to Paducah about May 1, from Point pleasant, W. Va., to run out of this port in the Cumberland river after tides. The Wilmo will be known in the future as the Bluespot, the name having been changed when the boat was bought. The new name is the company's trademark.

One of the largest lows that ever passed Paducah went by Sunday when the big Syrague with 51 pieces arrived from the Mississippi river on the way to Pittsburg. They were empties.

The Harry Brown arrived Sunday from Pittsburg with a tow of coal and left several barges here for the Pittsburg Coal company. The Harry Brown left today for the Mississippi river.

Passenger business on the City of Satilla was rushing last night on the arrival from St. Louis. After a two-of three hours' stay here, the Satilla went up the Mississippi river.

To get back on schedule time, the Baton will arrive Wednesday from Nashville and instead of going to Clarksville will go to Nashville again throwing it back here next Monday, the regular time for the Clarksville trip.

The Dick Fowler after a rest Sunday, left on time for Calro this morning and will return at 8 o'clock tonight.

The Clyde will arrive tonight or in the morning from the Tennessee river.

The Russell Lord arrived Sunday from St. Louis and will leave today for the Tennessee river after tides for the Ayer-Lord Tle company.

The John Hopkins arrived this morning at 11 o'clock from Evansville and cleared for the same point a few hours later.

W. N. Mullen went down to Joppa today to take the position of captain on the towboat Concord. Captain Mullen has been on the Fannie Wallace for several weeks.

Guy Walker went out on the tow-boat Russell Lord today as pilot.
Wesley Bennett is at the wheel on the Fannie Wallace taking the place of Captain Mullen.

The Problems of the People

Not since the ardent days preceding the Civil War have the people of this country been so aroused over public questions.
Never since then have problems of such immediate personal concern presented themselves to the people for solution.

Every man that earns a dollar and every man that spends a dollar is interested in their settlement. Interested because they affect his rights and his property, his patriotism and his pocketbook.

THE READER MAGAZINE is having these great questions threshed out in a series of brilliant papers by the two men—President Roosevelt excepted—who enjoy to the greatest degree the confidence of the rank and file of their respective parties. Champions of principle, fired with zeal for the success of their causes, they appeal to the reason and the conscience of the nation.

Pretty Yellow and White Card Party.

Mrs. C. H. Blaney's card party on Saturday afternoon at her home, 528 Clark street, was a very beautiful affair. The house was effectively decorated throughout in a color-motif of yellow and white. The mantels, tables, pedestals and buffets were banked with Marguerites, and white hydrangeal inter spread with palms and ferns. The lunch cloth was an artistic effect of white embroidered in yellow and the prettily-planned course luncheon emphasized the yellow and white scheme especially the salad course and in the ices, which were yellow and white brick cream. The cakes also, were white, iced with yellow.

The tables were of handpainted linen tied with yellow and white ribbons. For the first prize, a handsome cut glass violet vase, Mrs. T. M. Sisson and Miss Adah Brazelton cut. Miss Brazelton won and presented the vase to Mrs. Blanchard, of Boston, the out-of-town guest. The lone hand prize a pretty gold bowl Kentucky spoon, was taken by Mrs. Harry G. McElwee. The consolation prize, a dainty picture, went to Mrs. H. A. Harbit. The guests were: Mesdames Maude Conley Blanchard, of Boston, Mass.; Harry G. McElwee, H. A. Harbit, Joseph Gardner, Lillieans Orme, David L. VanCulin, John T. Donovan, Harry G. Johnston, Ad. Rasch, Hubbard Wells, George B. Hart, T. M. Sisson; Misses Adah Brazelton, Mary Brazelton, Birdie Woolfolk.

IN THE COURTS

The April civil term of McCracken circuit court began this morning at 8:30 o'clock, Judge William M. Reed presiding. The docket will probably be disposed of, as far as jury cases are concerned, in three weeks. The petit jury was empaneled this morning shortly after court adjourned, and business gone into immediately.

The petit jury was empaneled as follows:

Jesse Bell, J. A. McCarty, J. W. Boldry, Frank Nethoff, Henry Culp, H. W. Rottgering, M. M. Manning, E. G. Boone, W. J. Engler, Fred Nagel, L. Thompson, T. E. Ashby, C. G. Babb, H. C. Hines, A. F. Darden, W. S. Purdom, Louis Kapp, J. J. Clark, A. Ezell, F. E. Lack, Joe Wirth, A. C. Hargrove, Robert Mitchell, Chris Liebel, John B. Hall, W. E. Cochran, P. L. Scott, J. M. Hart, H. C. Renick and R. A. Webb.

This afternoon the consolidated cases of S. H. Jewell and Samuel Spence against the Paducah Traction company was given to the jury. The plaintiffs sue for $2,610 damages, each, for injuries sustained at Tenth and Tennessee streets when a car struck their wagon.

The case of James A. Maynard against the Paducah Traction company is on trial. It is for damages for personal injuries.

In Bankruptcy.

Referee in Bankruptcy E. W. Bagby Saturday dismissed a petition filed by A. E. Boyd, trustee of the estate of E. Rehkopf, bankrupt, to secure the household effects of the bankrupt. Evidence showed the property belonged to Mr. Rehkopf's wife.

An order confirming the sale of property in the case of J. H. Nelson, bankrupt, of Hampton, Livingston county, was made Saturday by Referee Bagby.

Attorneys Crice and Ross and Campbell, Campbell and Campbell will have to look to the purchasers of property for their mortgage claim of $2,000 in the E. Rehkopf bankruptcy case. Before Rehkopf was forced into bankruptcy the mortgage was filed in county court and duly recorded. At the sale of property by the trustee, A. E. Boyd, announcement was made that the property was encumbered and purchasers would buy it, knowing that a mortgage stood against it.

Referee in Bankruptcy E. W. Bagby this morning decided that the attorneys could not secure their fee out of the proceeds of the sale. This point had been brought up and argued for several days, and attracted a great deal of attention. The attorneys will appeal from the decision of the referee.

In Police Court.

The case against Kate Shaw, alias Hite, was again continued when called in police court this morning. She is accused of maliciously shooting Bud Nance, Nance was absent from court. Judge Cross will issue an attachment against him and recognize him for his appearance, that the trial may not be delayed again.

The cases against George Lendler, white, for maliciously cutting Noah Stewart, colored, and against Stewart for striking Lendler, were continued.

Other cases: George Meltzer and Tom Ross, drunkenness, $1 and costs; George Broadus, colored, drunk and disorderly, continued; George Stubbfield, colored, breach of peace, dismissed; Clara Lucas, colored, drunk and disorderly, $5 and costs; John Lowe, colored, disorderly conduct, dismissed.

Deeds Filed.

Sam J. Levy to Jesse B. Loeb, property on Fountain avenue and Broadway, $1 and other considerations.

C. T. Allen to Rowena Mayhugh, property in the county, $50.

W. C. O'Bryan to C. T. Allen, property in the O'Bryan addition, $1,100.

Cora Bryant to Eugene Tuttle, property on Bachman street, $225.

Andrew P. Humberg to Eugene E. and Katie Moore, property in Harahan addition, $225.

Engine Moore to Katie Moore, property in Harahan addition, $1 and other considerations.

W. H. Ralph, et al, to Mike Iselman, property at Jackson and Thirtieth streets, $700.

Harry Resor is Improved.

The condition of Mr. Harry Resor, of Bandana, a nephew of City Jailer Tom Elytis, is reported better today, but he is not yet out of danger. He is suffering from typhoid-pneumonia and was considered hopelessly ill Saturday. Sunday Jailer Elytis visited the patient.

Dayton, O., April 29.—Eight men engaged in digging a trench at the National Cash Register works were seriously injured by an explosion of gas today. All were taken to the hospital.

FINDS FATHER'S BODY.

Waycross, Ga., April 29.—According to the verdict of the coroner's jury, John Grantham, 35 years old, was murdered by unknown parties at the new Atlantic Coast Line shops here early today. The body of the dead man was found by his little son at noon today when he went to the shops to carry his father's dinner. The body was about 70 feet from the building, in which Grantham's pistol was found, with one chamber empty. The dead man was watchman at the shops, and it was first thought that he had accidentally killed himself.

SPRING FEVER DAYS.

How To Avoid the Lazy Feelings That Come With Mild, Warm Weather.

Spring fever days are here. They come with the advent of warm weather, and stay until frost—with some people.

Spring fever is not confined to this vicinity only. Every locality has it, to a degree.

Appreciated right, it is a Godsend, as it reminds you that you should put your body in good condition for summer, the hardest season of the year. The liver, the stomach, the bowels and the kidneys, the skin and blood, every organ and function needs attention, just as a locomotive does at the end of a run of a hundred miles, and the people who appreciate this fact are our healthiest people.

Osteopathy is the one natural treatment in all conditions of stomach, liver, bowel, kidney, skin and blood disorders. Without the use of any medicines, with proper diet, with the dry hot air treatment, where indicated, the osteopathic treatment is an assured and permanent cure.

I should like to talk to you at any time about the treatment for yourself, or any member of your family, and the best testimonials I can offer you of the treatment are the commendations of Paducah people whom you know well, who have taken the treatment.

Especially is Osteopathy a rational treatment of ailments peculiar to children.

Phone me at 1407, or call at my office, upstairs, 516 Broadway, and I shall be pleased to advise with you.

Dandelion

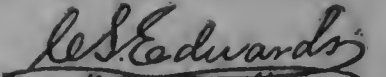

Permanently Relieves Constipation and Sick-headache.

Guaranteed under Pure Food and Drugs Act, June 30, 1905. Serial 3517.

A constipated person would not live many days. If it were not for the liver, because the blood would be poisoned within a few hours, but the effect of a healthy liver render harmless the poisonous matter that is generated.

Lack of exercise and steady brain work are the chief causes of constipation. Fortunately this trouble, even after it has reached a chronic stage, can be overcome by using Dr. Edwards' Compound Dandelion Tablets or D.P.s. They act mildly upon the mucous membrane of the intestines. Their action is certain and they never gripe. Being composed of purely vegetable matter they do not produce any unnatural condition of the bowels. Get a box today.

Methodists Unite on School. Louisville, April 27.—Prospects for an adequate university of Louisville that will equal and perhaps surpass any institution of its kind in the south have been much brightened by a tentative contract that has been entered into between the trustees of the University of Louisville and the board of education of the Louisville conference, Methodist Episcopal church south, and the board of education of the Methodist Episcopal church, whereby the two church boards agree to give up all effort to establish a separate university and donate annually the interest on $200,000 to $400,000 for the support of the projected greater University of Louisville. Before any definite action is taken the contract must be submitted to and ratified by the conferences of the churches. Consequently, according to members of the respective boards, it will be several months before it can be definitely announced that a consolidation will be effected.

DRUG TRUST LOSES

GRANTS TO AN INJUNCTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS.

Conspiracy in Restraint of Trade Alleged in Suit—Victory For The Government.

Indianapolis, April 29.—A tentative agreement for a decree was reached at a conference, today, between attorneys representing practically all of the defendants in the case of the United States against the National Association of Retail Druggists and others, and Addison C. Harris and C. W. McEer, associate counsel for the Government.

This case is known as the "Drug trust case." Of the ninety-two defendants, attorneys representing all but nine have joined in the agreement, subject in a number of cases, however, to the approval of their clients.

In a general way the agreement provides for an injunction against the defendants which will restrain them from the alleged acts complained of in the bill of complaint. It was alleged that they had entered into a conspiracy in restraint of trade and commerce and in violation of the Sherman law. Various allegations were made against each of the defendants organizations named as being a part of a general scheme against those who were not members of the association or would not abide by the alleged methods of the associations.

The agreement, if it goes through, is a complete victory for the Government, the defendants simply saying the cost of further litigation.

The defendants named in the suit were the National Association Wholesale Druggists, the National Wholesale Druggists' Association, the Tripartite Proprietors, the Blacklist Manufacturers, the Wholesale Contract Proprietors, together with the officers, agents and members of these various associations.

Several Cities Are After National Republican Convention Next Year

Washington, D. C., April 29.—Four cities—Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Seattle—have already filed more or less formal applications for the honor of furnishing the accommodations for the next Republican national convention. Other cities will be heard from before long, suggestions having been made informally already. By the time the national committee meets early in December, there will be at least a dozen cities, it is said, contesting for the honor, and the fight is likely to be almost as serious in its way as that for the presidential nomination itself on which it may have some bearing.

There is always a good deal of personal politics in selecting the convention city, and the indications are that this year will be no exception to the usual rule. At the time the national committee meets here in Washington next December the preliminary fight for the nomination will be getting hot. All the delegates are elected after that time, because until the call is formally issued no district or state convention has any authority to prepare for the national gathering.

After the time and place for holding the convention has been fixed by the national committee the actual fight for delegates begins, and it will continue up to within a few weeks of the convention itself.

Politics at White House. Acting Chairman New, of the Republican national committee, and Elmer Dover, the secretary, were both here today and yesterday, had more or less lengthy conferences this morning with the president before he left for Jamestown. They talked politics, as a matter of course. It may be significant that Vice Chairman New, although he comes from Indiana, is not a friend of President Fairbanks, and Elmer Dover was recently offered the work of managing the Taft campaign in Ohio. Furthermore, Senator Kittredge, of South Dakota, was at the white house at the same time, and when he left said to the correspondent without the slightest hesitation:

"I am for Taft, and will do all I can for his nomination."

The location of the convention of course was not discussed at the white house, as matters have not yet reached the stage where any of the candidates has felt that his chances would be helped or hindered by the location in any particular place, except, perhaps, in his own state.

Effect of Local Influences. There was a time when it was believed that the location of the convention had a good deal to do with the chances of a candidate. Local influences are frequently exerted to boom this or that man at opportune times, and all sorts of claptrap circus devices—girls in white and men in red, and sudden outbursts of flags and banners—have been resorted to, but they amount to but little in the long run. Politics has become such a science nowadays that the preferences of the delegates are pretty well ascertained before the convention is called to order, and it is not often that a gathering of a thousand men representing the ultimate machinery of a great political party can be swept off its feet by noisy demonstrations in the galleries.

Every politician knows that, on the whole, he would get fair treatment anywhere, so far as the body of the convention is concerned, and yet, for the sake of pleasing their own followers, candidates frequently indulge in a great deal of jockeying over the location of the national convention, and sometimes even over the question of the time.

A VALUABLE PRESCRIPTION.

The average person does not realize how much the bodily health depends upon the proper action of the kidneys and bladder, nor how widespread disorders of these organs are. It is quite safe to say that they give physicians as many sleepless nights on account of their patients as do any of the others, and perhaps it would not be too much to say that, directly and indirectly, they are chargeable with as much sickness as all the other organs of the human body combined. As a result of a vast amount of careful study, many physicians are now using with great success in the treatment of disorders traceable to the kidneys and bladder a prescription composed of 1-4 Fluid Extract of Buchu, 1-4 oz. Fluid Extract Uve Ursi, 1 oz. Amer. Cordial, 1-4 Fluid Extract of Liverwort and 15 ozs. water. This is administered in doses of tablespoonful three times a day and while the treatment is continued, which, in order that all impurities may be eliminated from the system, should be for a month, the patient is advised to drink large quantities of water. The materials called for by the prescription are carried in stock by every first-class pharmacy.

UNMOVED

ARE LABOR ORGANIZATIONS IN MOYER-HAYWOOD MATTER.

Decline To Condemn President For His Refusal To Interfere In Case.

St. Louis, April 29.—The Central Trades and Labor Union of St. Louis today refused to endorse a resolution by the Pattern Makers' organization attacking President Roosevelt for his refusal to uphold Moyer and Haywood, officers of the Western Federation of Miners, charged with murder conspiracy.

New York, April 29.—The Central Federation Union today instead of unanimously condemning President Roosevelt for his action in the Moyer-Haywood matter stood evenly divided on the question. After three hours discussion the meeting ordered that the committee of three appointed at last Sunday's meeting visit the president at Washington.

WEEK'S EVENTS

TAFT MAY MAKE ANNOUNCEMENT IN OHIO.

Kindergarten Union, Submarine Test, and Other Items of Interest For the Public.

Important events of the week are forecasted as follows:

Political interest this week centers in the possibility of a definite announcement of his candidacy for the Republican nomination for president by Secretary Taft. Today he is scheduled to address the Business Men's club at Cincinnati, but it is considered doubtful whether he will have anything to say in definition of his position at this meeting.

About 1,600 delegates are expected to attend the convention of the International Kindergarten union in New York city beginning today and continuing four days. Incidental to the convention there will be an exhibition of the materials and methods used in kindergartens from their inception.

Novel Submarine Tests.

A novel test to determine how to expend the $3,000,000 which congress has appropriated for the purchase of submarine boats will be commenced off Newport, R. I., on Tuesday. The Holland boat, the Otopus, and the Simon Lake boat, the Lake, will take part in tests for speed, quickness at diving, and ability to dive deeply all the mode.

The question as to who will rule Zion City is expected to come to an issue, on Wednesday, as Wilbur Glenn Voliva has issued an ultimatum declaring that unless the people of the community accept him as their head by May 1, he will take radical action to assert his control.

9,000 Cigar-makers Idle.

Cigar-makers at Havana have decided to close their factories April 29, in sympathy with the strikers of the tobacco combine. Nine thousand cigar-makers will be out of employment.

The international maritime exposition organized by the French Naval league will open at Bordeaux May 1 and continue until October 21.

The exposition is to commemorate the centennial anniversary of the invention of steam navigation by Robert Fulton.

Over three hundred members of the Vienna Mannergesang Verein are due to arrive at New York May 4. Concerts will be given in New York, Washington, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Buffalo and Milwaukee.

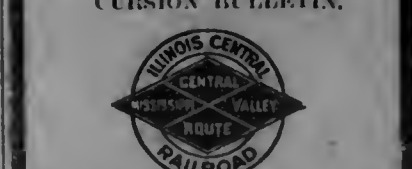

Elections for members of the Spanish senate will be held May 5.

NEWS OF KENTUCKY

Hot Race On For Nomination.

Marion, Ky., April 29.—James C. Newman, a prominent banker and capitalist of Tompkinsville, has announced his candidacy for the senate from the Nineteenth district, subject to the action of the Republican party. Dr. P. W. Bushong, of Summer Shade, announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination several weeks ago, and the announcement of Mr. Newman insures a lively and interesting campaign. The district is very close politically and has been a battleground for the two old parties for many years. It is at present represented by Senator T. H. Gillenwaters, Democrat, of

Piano Progress

One of the most notable industrial achievements of recent years is the development of the Piano Industry of the West. Only a short decade ago, all artistic pianos in the United States were made in the East, and Eastern manufacturers appeared to be content resting upon their laurels. Subsequently, with the advent of the old established, but progressive commercial house of Baldwin, of Cincinnati, upon the industrial field, this was changed.

The progress of the House of Baldwin, of Cincinnati, with its ramifications throughout the United States, was revolutionary in its character. Not only was the standard of quality of Pianos raised. Through the application of modern methods, the cost of production was lowered and unnecessary cost eliminated. Thus it is possible today, under the Baldwin system of Piano construction and distribution, to purchase from us Pianos of greater artistic merit, and higher industrial value, at a much lower price than of any other Piano firm in the land.

Do You Think

For Yourself?

Do you open your mouth like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you?

There is an intelligent thinking woman, in need of relief from weakness, nervousness, pain and suffering, then it means much to you that there is one tried and true honest medicine, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of women's ills.

The makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of weak, nervous, run-down, over-worked, debilitated, pain-racked women, knowing this medicine to be made up of ingredients, every one of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the leading and standard authorities of the several schools of practice, are perfectly willing, and in fact, are only too glad to prove, as they do, the formula, or list of ingredients, of which it is composed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper.

The formula of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will bear the most critical examination of medical experts, for it contains no alcohol, narcotics, harmful, or habit-forming drugs, and no agent enters into it that is not highly recommended by the most advanced and leading medical teachers and authorities of their several schools of practice. These authorities recommend the ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of exactly the same ailments for which this world-famous medicine is advised.

No other medicine for women's ills has any such professional endorsement as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has received. In the unqualified recommendation of each of its several ingredients by scores of leading medical men of all the schools of practice, is such an endorsement not worthy of your consideration?

A booklet of ingredients, with numerous authoritative professional endorsements by the leading medical authorities of this country, will be mailed free to any sending name and address with request for same. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Bass' Horse Runs Away.

Dr. Johnston Bass, formerly city physician now residing at Lone Oak, came to town Saturday afternoon to attend a patient at Riverside hospital, leaving his horse in front of the hospital. The animal ran away and was stopped four miles from the city on the Lone Oak road by a colored man, who brought the horse to the police station. No damage was done.

Ability will be recognized if only he who has it will be patient sufficiently long.

CHAPTER XX.

RUNTON was apparently enjoying the relaxation of having got rid of practically the whole of its guests for the day. The women servants were going about their duties faithfully enough, but with a marked absence of any superfluous energy. Mr. Harrison, the butler, was enjoying a quiet pipe in his room and a leisurely perusal of the morning paper. Mrs. Ellis, the much respected housekeeper, was also in her room comfortably ensconced in an easy chair and studying a new volume of collected menus which a friend had sent her from Paris. No one was exactly neglecting their work, but every one was appreciating a certain sense of peace which the emptying of the house from a crowd of more or less exacting guests had brought about.

In one room only things were different, and neither Mrs. Ellis nor Mr. Harrison nor any of the household knew anything about that. It was the principal guest chamber on the first floor, a large and handsomely furnished apartment. Barely an hour ago it had been left in spotless order by a couple of palatizing servants. Just now it had another aspect.

In the middle of the room a man lay stretched upon the floor, face down.

He was down on his knees upon the floor.

ward. The blood was slowly trickling down on the carpet. With nearly every breath he drew he groaned. Overturned chairs and tables showed that he had taken part in no ordinary struggle. The condition of the other man also testified this.

The other man was Mr. Fielding. He was down on his knees upon the floor, rapidly going through the contents of a dark mahogany box, which was apparently full of papers. Scattered over the carpet by his side were various strange looking tools, by means of which he had forced the lock. Mr. Fielding was not all his usual self. His face was absolutely colorless, and every few moments his hand went up to his shoulder blade and a shiver went through his whole frame. There was a faint odor of gunpowder in the room, and somewhere near the feet of the prostrate man lay a small shining revolver. Nevertheless, Mr. Fielding persevered in his task.

Suddenly there came an interruption. Footsteps outside in the corridor had paused. There was a sharp tapping at the door. The prostrate man groaned louder than ever and half turned over, proving that he was not wholly unconscious. Mr. Fielding closed the box and staggered to his feet.

He stood for a moment staring wildly at the door. Who could it be? He had asked, as a special favor, that he might not be disturbed, and Mr. Fielding knew how to ask favors of servants. Interruption now meant disaster, absolute and unqualified—the end, perhaps, of a career in which he had achieved some success. Big drops of perspiration stood out upon his forehead, drawn there by the pain and this new fear. Slowly and on tiptoe he drew near the door.

"Who is that?" he asked, with wonderful calmness.

"It is I! Let me in," came the swift answer, and Mr. Fielding drew a little breath of relief. Nevertheless he was angry. He opened the door and drew the girl in.

"You fool!" he exclaimed. "I sent you out of the way on purpose. Why have you come back?"

She opened her lips, but no words came. The man on the floor groaned again. She swayed upon her feet. It was all so horrible.

"Speak, can't you?" he muttered between his teeth. "Things have gone badly here. I'm wounded, and I'm afraid I've hurt that chap pretty badly."

"I was in the park," she faltered. "and I saw them. They are all coming back!"

"Coming back?"

"They are almost here. Sir George Duncombe told me that they could not shoot because of the wind."

"The car?"

"Downstairs—waiting."

He had forgotten his hat. He caught up his hat and coat and pushed her out of the room. He looked the door and thrust the key into his pocket. As they walked down the corridor he lit a cigarette.

A footman met them in the hall. "A gentleman has called to see you, sir, a Mr. Spencer," he announced. "I have shown him into the library."

Mr. Fielding appeared to hesitate for a moment.

"It is the man who wants to sell the car," he exclaimed, turning toward the girl, "but I haven't even seen it yet. Better tell him to wait for a quarter of an hour," he added, turning toward the footman. "I'll just drive down to the lodge gates and back. Come along, Lily!"

She followed him to the front door.

A man was seated at the wheel of the motor car and turned his head quickly as they approached. Mr. Fielding nodded pleasantly, though his face was white with excreting pain.

"Keep your waiting, I'm afraid," he said. "Can you drive at all in a wind like this?"

"Jump in, sir, and see," the man answered. "Is the young lady coming?"

Mr. Fielding nodded and stepped into the front seat. The girl was already in the trolley. The man slipped in his clutch, and they glided round the broad, circular sweep in front of the entrance. Just as they started the wagonette drew up.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drought are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codel, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." EPISCOPAL COUNCIL.

Will Meet in Louisville May 14—Grace Church.

The most interesting event announced in Episcopal circles for the near future is the annual council for the diocese of Kentucky, which will hold its sessions in Louisville, beginning with the evening of May 14, and continuing for three days. All the sessions will be held at the church of the Advent. Bishop Woodcock will preside.

The work of the church in the diocese for the past year will be reviewed and larger operations outlined.

The Rev. David C. Wright will attend and there will be a lay delegation from Grace church, who will be selected next week. It is probable the Woman's Auxiliary of Grace church will be represented.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. D. Brimsen, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by all druggists. 50c.

LARGE CROWD AT CAIRO.

Paducah Contributed 500 To See Airship Ascension.

It is estimated that fully 5,000 visitors were in Cairo yesterday, and Paducahans were prominent among them, nearly 500 going down on train and boat. The Central Labor Union of Paducah ran an excursion on the steamer "J. S." and carried 350 passengers from Paducah, 40 from Brookport, 100 from Metropolis and about 100 from Monmouth City. The boat left the wharf at 9:30 and returned at 11 o'clock. The union made about $350 on the trip, and is encouraged to run another, a moonlight excursion on May 10 on the same boat. The attraction at Cairo was the flight of an air ship, which was a success. Trains from every direction and on every road, carried hundreds into Cairo.

PRIVATE LIGHTING.

Carnegie Library Board May Decide on Plan.

A private system of lighting and heating is being advocated in the directorate of the Carnegie library, but has not yet taken definite form. It has been suggested that a proposition be made the Grace Episcopal church to furnish it lights with the private system, which would make it cheaper both for the library and the church. It is understood that repairs and renewed wiring is to be ordered at the library which will make an expense of about $100. At present the lighting bill of the library averages $30 the month.

BURGLARS ARE THIRSTY AND ENTER A SALOON

Hesitate for a drink, burglars entered Ed Pierson's saloon at Seventh and Tribune streets Sunday night and stole a quart of whiskey. This is all the proprietor misses. The thieves entered by prizing up a side window, and it is thought the theft was committed early in the night.

NO LABOR CLOUDS OVER INDUSTRIES

Reports From All Sections Indicate Peace on May Day

Pasco and Salt Lake City Alone Mar Harbors of Situation With Trouble.

INVOLVE ABOUT 10,450 MEN

Chicago, April 29.— Dispatches from the principal labor centers of the country show the industrial situation generally quiet. May 1 often has been dreaded by employers as a time for strikes. But this year, with the exception of Salt Lake and San Francisco there is scarcely a cloud on the business horizon.

Locally the relations between employers and employees never were more harmonious than now. Iron workers and machinists are practically the only crafts whose new contracts have not been accepted and adjustment of their schedules is expected.

Ten Thousand Workers Considering San Francisco, April 29.—The approach of May 1 finds San Francisco facing serious labor troubles. Eleven unions including every branch of the metal trades have called meetings to be held between now and next Tuesday night to consider the refusal of the employers to grant an eight hour day with nine hours' pay.

A vote will be taken to decide whether the men shall accept the offer of a continuance of the nine hour day with a 5 per cent. increase in wages or go on a strike. About 10,000 are involved.

Salt Lake City Car Strike.

Salt Lake City, April 29.—A strike was declared on the street car lines of the Utah Light and Railway company today, 150 men walking out. Numerous scenes of disorder followed attempts made by the company to operate a few cars with non-union crews and all efforts to maintain even a partial service were soon abandoned.

Pittsburg Workers Satisfied.

Pittsburg, April 29.—May day in Pittsburg and vicinity is expected to see fewer disputes than in previous years. Heretofore there has been considerable difficulty in the building trades, but this year new scales have been signed, and the men apparently are satisfied. With the exception of machinists, about 300 of whom are at the striking point, but it is believed all wage scales will be adjusted.

No Apprehension in Gotham.

New York, April 29.—The opening of the out door construction season finds New York City and state, without apprehension of serious labor troubles. In the building trades, by years in the building trades small trades are threatened in several cities but in Boston there promises to be little suspension of work in any branch of industry. New England cotton mill owners may have trouble with their employees next month.

St. Louis Has No Strikes. St. Louis, April 29.—Employers and labor leaders of St. Louis and the south-west report excellent labor conditions for May 1. Practically all wage scales in the territory for 200 miles around have been signed. In St. Louis alone this includes 120,000 union men.

ILLINOIS METHODISM

Will Be Celebrated in August, the Centennial Month.

Methodists of Illinois will celebrate at Shiloh, near Belleville, Ill., in August next the establishment of Methodism in Illinois and the centennial of the first Protestant church in the state, Shiloh church. The late Peter Cartwright in his writings mentioned Capt. Joseph Ogle as the earliest laborer for Methodism in Illinois territory, and as his labors for this cause began with his conversion

In June, 1787, it is proper to fix the birth of Methodism in Illinois at this date. At intervals after that he called his neighbors to his house for religious services held by the Rev. Joseph Lillard, the first Methodist minister in Illinois. This was the first Methodist class formed in the state.

PADUCAH TEAMS BOTH WON SUNDAY

Culley's Defeated Cairo Players at Wallace Park

Holland's Independents Turned the Track Against Mound City At That Town.

DICK BRAHIC WAS PITCHER

Castling off a hoodoo which had clung to them since the season opened, both the Paducah Independents and Culley's baseball teams won yesterday by good margins, and it was not a case of "give away" in either instance. Both teams played fast ball, and few misplays were credited to Paducah players. The Culleys won from the Cairo "Rubys" at Wallace park by a score of 8 to 5, and the Independents won from Mound City at that place by a score of 5 to 1.

Culley Game.
In the eighth inning with the score 5 to 2 in favor of the visitors the Culleys made six scores and won out. During this inning they slugged the ball as hard and fast as the Cairo players booted it. It was a case of "balloon ascension" with the visitors, and at one time they juggled the ball while Paducah players ran bases without interference. It was the first real victory of the Culleys this season.

The score:

Culley's	8	8	4
Rubys	5	4	7

 Batteries—Hart, Block and Block; Wisebaum and Walburn, Jim Porteous, umpire.

Independents Win.
John Holland's Independents won by the score of 5 to 1 at Mound City from a salaried independent team. Brahic pitched for the Independents and was in form, allowing but two miscast hits. The Paducah aggregation made four quick double plays and A. Davis, third baseman for the Paducah team, hit out a clean home run in the third inning, and after that Independents found little difficulty in finding the Illinois twirler.

The score:

Independents	5	9	0
Mound City	1	2	3

Batteries—Brahic and Hayes; Stevenson and Richardson. A local umpire was used.

Brockett's Tent.
"Kling" Brockett, who graduated from the Kitty league in Cairo uniform the first season of the league, won his first game Friday for the New York Americans, shutting out Washington. Brockett allowed five hits with one error behind him and had three assists to his credit. He worked against Graham, who yielded ten bingles. Brockett evidently has made good in the big league.

Indicates That Missing Miners' Official Is Suicide.

Murphysboro, Ill., 1901.
 Debtor to P. H. Strawhun, for money loaned to members of our union, to the amount as follows:
 10 men $100 a piece $1,000
 15 members from $25 to $50 a piece 555
 100 members $10 apiece 1,000
 150 members $5 apiece 750
 1,000 members from 25c to $2 apiece 1,000
 Making a total of $4,475

I have not been given credit on books for this amount, while I should have been. Being a good fellow has caused me to quit this earth, and I have gone with the belief that I have done nothing wrong, except be a good fellow, and I hope that who takes my place will handle the office so as he will not have to quit this life as I did. Please give me credit for the above bill which is true. Signed: PAT.

This letter was found in the office of P. H. Strawhun, the missing secretary and treasurer of the United Mine Workers of America, by President G. V. Rodman. This letter would tend to strengthen the suicide theory. But the fact still remains that Strawhun drew $1,500 just before leaving Murphysboro, and if he committed suicide it is difficult to understand why he needed the $1,500.
